2012 ORANGE BOWL • JANUARY 4, 2012

2011 TIGER ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Earned first BCS bowl appearance since 1981.
- ACC Champions for the first time in 20 years.
- ACC Atlantic Division Champion for the second time in three years.
- Won 10 games for the first time since 1990.
- Ranked in the AP poll 12 straight weeks, the longest Tiger streak in 11 years.
- Defeated four top-25 ranked teams, tied for second-most in the nation and most in Clemson history in a season.
- Became the first ACC school to defeat AP-ranked teams in three consecutive games.
- Finished #15 in the BCS ranking on December 4, tied for highest final ranking in school history. Clemson was in the top 25 of the BCS rankings eight straight weeks to finish the regular season.
- Achieved a #5 BCS ranking on October 23, the highest BCS ranking in Tiger history.
- Won the first eight games of the season, just the fourth team in Clemson history to do that and the first in 11 years.
- Posted a perfect 7-0 record at home, the first 7-0 home mark in Tiger history.
- Overcame a deficit of 14 points or more to win three games, the most in one season in school history. Clemson had done it just nine times in 115 years

- previously. Clemson overcame an 18-point deficit at Maryland to tie for the second-greatest comeback in Tiger history.
- In defeating #19 Auburn for the first time since 1951, Clemson ended the nation's longest winning streak, as Auburn had won 17 straight games. It was the longest winning streak ended by Clemson in history.
- Clemson gained 624 yards of total offense in the win over #19 Auburn, the most in school history against an SEC team.
- Clemson was named National Team-of-the-Week by the Football Writers Association for its 35-30 win over #11 Florida State on September 24.
- Defeated a top-10 Virginia Tech team twice by a combined score of 61-13.
- Defeated #10 Virginia Tech 23-3 on October 1, as the 20-point victory margin was the largest in Clemson history in a road win over a top-25 team.
- Became bowl eligible on October 7, the earliest eligibility in Tiger history.
- Scored at least 50 points in consecutive games against ACC teams, a first in Tiger history.
- Set the school record for consecutive quarters scoring (22) between September 17 and October 22.
- Achieved all this with a roster that played 29 freshmen, tied for the most in the nation.

PERSONNEL OVERVIEW

Offense

Clemson is averaging nearly 441 yards of total offense, a record pace heading into the Discover Orange Bowl. The squad's 437 points and 3,702 passing yards are already school standards. Dabo Swinney's offense under Coordinator Chad Morris has scored at least 35 points in eight of the 13 games and gained at least 440 yards in nine of the 13 contests.

One of the reasons for the success on the offensive side of the ball has been balance. This is only the second team in Clemson history that has had at least 2,000 rushing yards and 3,000 passing yards. In four games, Clemson has had at least 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards, and the Tigers have won all four contests. Clemson is now 57-0-1 all-time when gaining at least 200 yards of each in the same game.

Another example of balance is shown by the fact that this team became just the third in Clemson history with a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver. The Tigers have 20 rushing touchdowns and 31 passing touchdowns. Seven different Tigers have been involved in a play of 50 yards or more.

Turnovers are a key indicator of success, and that is the case with this team. The Tigers committed just seven turnovers on offense in the first eight games and Clemson had an 8-0 record in those contests. The Tigers then committed 12 turnovers in the next four games and went 1-3. Clemson did not commit a turnover in the ACC Championship game and came away with a 28-point victory over #3 Virginia Tech.

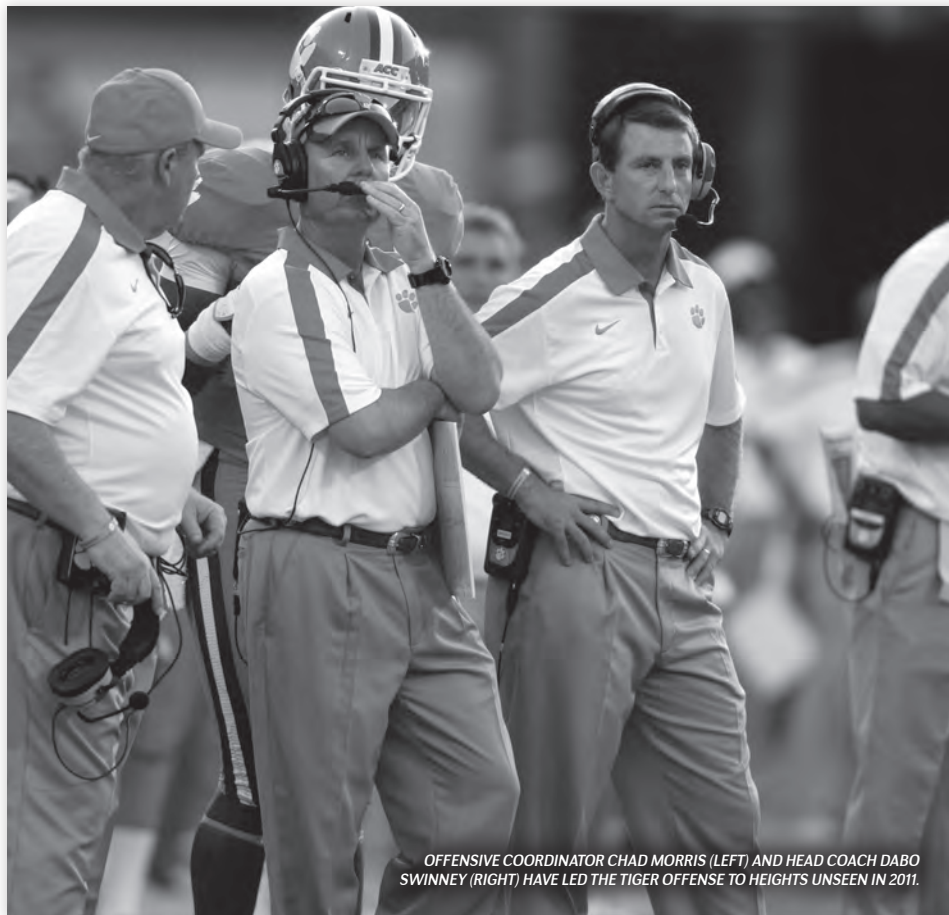

Clemson is 9-1 when committing two turnovers or less and 1-2 when committing three or more. The Tigers are 8-0 when winning or breaking even in terms of the turnover margin as well.

Clemson has a veteran offensive line with young skill-position players. The team's leading rusher, passer, and receiver are all underclassmen, but the Tigers start three seniors on the offensive line. Overall, Clemson starts three seniors, four juniors, three sophomores, and a freshman on offense. Only seven of the top-24 players on offense are seniors.

The leader of the Clemson offense is First-Team All-ACC quarterback Tajh Boyd. Clemson's first First-Team All-ACC signal-caller since Woodrow Dantzler in 2001 has led Clemson to 10 wins in his first year as a starter, tied for the most victories by a first-year signal-caller in Tiger history and most since 1990.

SAMMY WATKINS BECAME THE ACC'S FIRST-EVER FRESHMAN TO BE NAMED AN AP FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICAN.

Boyd has completed 274-453 passes for 3,578 yards and 31 touchdowns. He has thrown just 10 interceptions and has completed over 60 percent of his passes. His 7.90 yards per pass attempt are best by a Tiger since 1993, when Patrick Sapp averaged 8.15 yards per pass attempt.

The Hampton, VA native has established school records for passing yards (3,578), passing touchdowns (31), and total offense (3,764) in a season. He is coming off an ACC Championship Game MVP performance, as he connected on 20-29 passes for 240 yards and three touchdowns in the victory over the Hokies in Charlotte.

Boyd had a pass efficiency rating of 172.6 for that game, his best performance since a 173.7 figure in the win over #11 Florida State on September 24. Seven times he has thrown at least three touchdown passes in a game in 2011, including a record-tying five passing touchdowns in a victory over North Carolina on October 22 when Clemson scored 59 points.

Boyd has led Clemson to four wins over top-25 teams in starting all 13 contests, the first quarterback in Tiger history to defeat four top-25 teams in one season.

Sammy Watkins is Clemson's leading receiver with 77 receptions for 1,153 yards and 11 touchdowns. The national freshman-of-the-year according to Rivals.com, Watkins already owns the Clemson record for receiving yards in a season, has tied the school record for receiving touchdowns, and has the second-best all-purpose yard average in school history. The ACC Rookie-of-the-Year by a 43-2 vote already owns ACC freshman records for receptions, receiving yards, receiving touchdowns, and all-purpose yards.

Watkins has three games of at least 150 receiving yards, already the Clemson career record for that category, and has five 100-yard receiving games, just one off the Tiger season record. He had a team-season-high 10 receptions for 155 yards and two touchdowns in the win over defending National Champion Auburn, then had seven catches for 141 yards and two touchdowns the next Saturday in the win over #11 Florida State.

The Fort Myers, FL native is fourth in the nation in all-purpose yards, as his 2,077 yards are second-most in Clemson history, trailing only C.J. Spiller, who had 2,680 all-purpose yards in 2009. Seven times this season, Watkins has been honored by the ACC, four times as ACC Rookie-of-the-Week and three times as ACC Receiver-of-the-Week. He was also named First-Team All-ACC. He is also an AP First-Team All-American, a first for an ACC freshman.

Watkins is also the team's third-leading rusher with 229 yards on 31 carries (7.4-yard average) and is first in kickoff returns (26.3-yard average) with a school-freshman-record 683 yards. He has scored 12 touchdowns overall, tying Spiller for the Tiger freshman record.

TAJH BOYD HAS LED CLEMSON TO A SCHOOL-RECORD FOUR WINS OVER TOP-25 RANKED TEAMS IN 2011, INCLUDING A 20-POINT VICTORY OVER #10 VIRGINIA TECH IN HIS HOME STATE.

PERSONNEL OVERVIEW

Joining Boyd and Watkins on the First-Team All-ACC squad this year is tight end Dwayne Allen. The Fayetteville, NC native has 48 receptions for 577 yards and eight touchdowns, Clemson records for a tight end in all three categories. He had two receiving touchdowns in the ACC Championship game and had three of his eight touchdowns in two wins over top-10 Virginia Tech teams that feature a top-10 scoring defense nationally. Those two touchdowns in December allowed him to break Bennie Cunningham's school record of seven receiving touchdowns in 1974.

Allen was the recipient of the John Mackey Award, which goes to the top tight end in college football. He became the first Tiger offensive player to win a national position award. Also an outstanding blocker, Allen has 12 career receiving touchdowns, tied for the school record in that category with former NFL tight end John McMakin. Allen is also a first-team All-American according to AP and the Football Writers Association.

DeAndre Hopkins is a third receiver who will occupy the mind of the opposing team's defensive coordinator. The sophomore who attended nearby D.W. Daniel High School has 62 receptions for 871 yards and four touchdowns. If he totals 129 receiving yards in the Orange Bowl, it will give Clemson two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season for the first time in history.

Hopkins is the second receiver in ACC history with at least 50 receptions in each of his first two seasons, as he was the team's top receiver as a freshman in 2010 with 52 catches. He already has 10 more receptions this year and over 200 more receiving yards. Hopkins had nine receptions for a team-season-high 157 yards and a touchdown against North Carolina in his best game this year.

In some ways, the MVP on the team might be running back Andre Ellington. The red-shirt junior became the 12th player in Tiger history to total 1,000 rushing yards in a season when he gained 125 yards against Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game.

That gave him 1,062 rushing yards for the season in 12 games, and he has scored 10 touchdowns. The Second-Team All-ACC performer also has 109 receiving yards and 131 kickoff return yards for a 108.5-yard average in terms of all-purpose yards. Ellington had a team-season-high 212 rushing yards in the wild 56-45 win at Maryland and has four 100-yard rushing games in 2011, plus a 98-yard rushing performance against Wake Forest. Clemson is 2-5 over the last two years when Ellington is injured and 14-5 when he is in the lineup.

Jaron Brown is a reliable receiver who has 29 catches for 382 yards and four touchdowns. Time and again he has made a key reception on a third-down play. The junior has started 11 of the 13 games and also contributes as a kick-off returner. He had his best game of the year in the ACC Atlantic Division clinching win over Wake Forest when he had seven receptions for 78 yards, including a game-tying 10-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter.

Swinney has many more capable young receivers in his lineup. Adam Humphries is a first-year freshman from Spartanburg, SC who has 13 receptions for 118 yards. Charone Peake, also a first-year freshman from the Spartanburg, SC area, has four receptions for 71 yards and Martavis Bryant has seven catches for 201 yards and two touchdowns. That is a combined 24 receptions for 389 yards, a healthy 15-yard average, from the trio.

Clemson's offensive line is led by center Dalton Freeman, a junior from Pelion, SC who is a First-Team All-ACC selection and one of six finalists for the Rimington Trophy, an honor presented to the top center in the nation. Freeman was one of just two underclassmen up for the award as a finalist.

Freeman has started all 13 games this year and has played a team-high 975 snaps. He has graded in the 90s seven times this year and has 35 knockdown blocks, second-most on the team. Freeman has 35 career starts and still has another year to go.

Graduate Landon Walker is the starting right tackle. The son of a letterman on the 1981 Clemson team that played in the Orange Bowl, Walker has started a school-record 48 games over the last four years, and this will be his fourth start in a bowl game. He has played in 52 games overall as well.

This year, Walker has had an average grade of 87 percent, helping the Tigers to a school-record 437 points. The North Wilkesboro, NC native is an Honorable Mention All-ACC selection this year. He leads the team in knockdowns (38) and is the only active Tiger with three bowl starts.

Phillip Price is the starting left offensive tackle. The senior has had a huge impact on the team's success. That was never more apparent than in Clemson's two losses against N.C. State and #13 South Carolina when he played only six combined snaps. He returned for the Virginia Tech game and Clemson won the ACC Championship.

Price is a first-team All-ACC selection according to CBSsports.com. Clemson's first original walk-on lineman to earn an All-ACC honor of any kind since Rob Bodine was an All-America middle guard in 1991. That was the last time Clemson won the ACC Championship prior to this year. Price has started 12 games and has played 777 snaps.

IF FIRST-TEAM ALL-ACC CENTER DALTON FREEMAN PLAYS 25 SNAPS IN THE ORANGE BOWL, HE CAN BECOME THE FIRST TIGER IN HISTORY TO PLAY 1,000 SNAPS IN A SEASON.

Clemson's starting offensive guards are senior Antoine McClain and sophomore Brandon Thomas. McClain is a three-year starter who has played 855 snaps this year. He has played 53 games and has made 40 starts (all in a row) during his career. Thomas, who scored a touchdown on a recovered fumble at Georgia Tech and also has a reception this year, has started nine games this year and has played 702 snaps.

The Tigers have two senior offensive linemen who have been solid contributors this year and over the last four years. Mason Cloy has played in 50 games and has 20 starts in his career. He had an outstanding game in the win over Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game. David Smith, already a Clemson graduate like Cloy, has played in 11 games this year with four starts. He has made 18 starts in 41 games in his career.

Another key to Clemson's offense is fullback Chad Diehl. While he will not show up in the stats much, he is among the team leaders in knockdown blocks and is a key to Clemson's short-yardage and red-zone success. The Orange Bowl will be his 57th career game, more than any other Tiger in history.

Defense

Clemson's defense is led by its front four that features First-Team All-ACC defensive end Andre Branch and Second-Team All-ACC defensive tackle Brandon Thompson. Both are slated to be high draft picks in the 2012 NFL draft. In fact, Thompson is rated #15 on Mel Kiper's Big Board (as of December 8).

The Tigers are coming off their second-best defensive performance of the year in the win over Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game. Clemson's point-prevention unit allowed Frank Beamer's team just 10 points, one touchdown, and forced three turnovers. Virginia Tech had just 56 yards on 29 carries, less than two yards per rush.

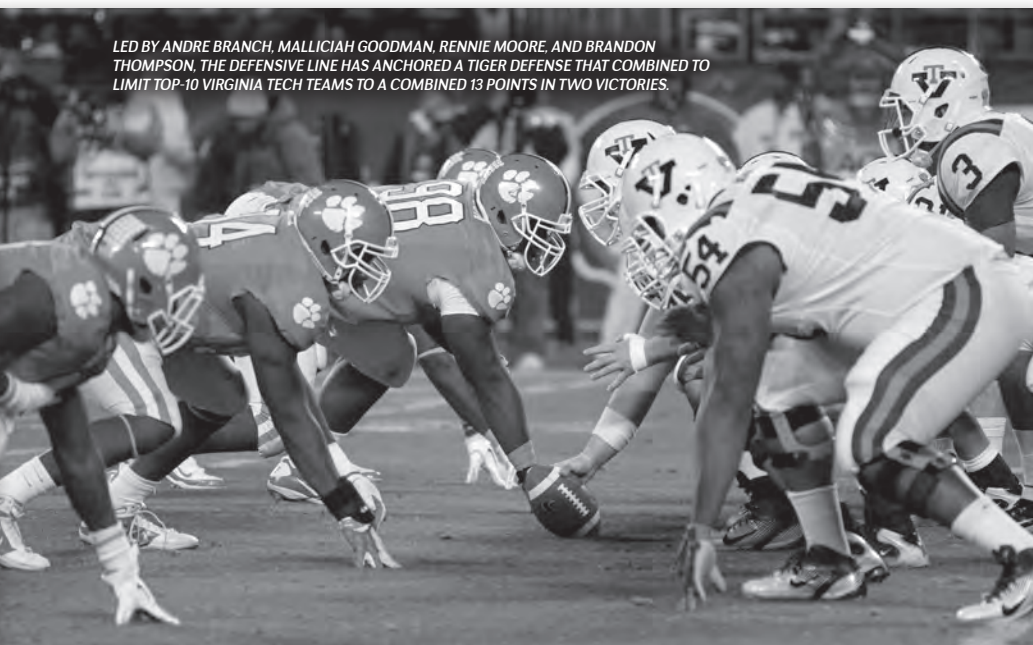

Branch is the most decorated among the Tiger defenders. He was named a second-team All-American by the Walter Camp Foundation and CBSsports.com. The Richmond, VA native played his best football against Virginia Tech. In the first meeting, he had four sacks and six tackles for loss to tie the Clemson single-game record for both categories. In the second meeting in the ACC Championship, he recovered a fumble on the first offensive play of the game, giving the ball to the Tigers and a possession that set up an early touchdown.

For the year, Branch has 78 tackles, 16 tackles for loss, and 10.5 sacks. He leads the ACC in sacks and is 11th in the nation. He is just three tackles from the team lead and is trying to become the first defensive lineman to lead Clemson in tackles for a season since William Perry in 1984.

Thompson is Branch's mate on the line. The Thomasville, GA native has 73 tackles to tie for third-most on the team. He also has seven tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks, and a team-tying-best 18 quarterback pressures. Thompson is in his third year as a starter and has played 52 games in his career, including 37 games as a starter.

Mallichiah Goodman and Rennie Moore are the other two starters for Kevin Steele's first line of defense. Goodman, who has an 11.5" hand span, has 55 tackles this year and four tackles for loss. His 13 quarterback pressures are fourth-most on the team. He has started all 13 games and has played 700 snaps. Goodman had six tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss in the win over Boston College.

RASHARD HALL HAS NINE CAREER INTERCEPTIONS AND LEADS THE 2011 TEAM IN TACKLES (81).

Moore is second on the team in sacks and tackles for loss. He has four sacks and nine tackles for loss to go with 18 quarterback pressures, tied for most on the team. Many times it has been Moore who has had the clutch late-game play. He sacked quarterback Clint Trickett on the Seminoles' last possession to ice the game for the Tigers in a five-point win.

Rashard Hall is the leading tackler for the Tigers with 81 stops in 12 games, including 11 as a starter. A junior by eligibility who has already graduated, Hall has come on strong this year with 36 tackles over his last four games. He had 10 stops in the win over Wake Forest to key Clemson's ACC Atlantic Division clinching victory. He has three takeaways for the year and 12 in his career.

Joining Hall in the starting secondary are graduate Coty Sensabaugh, junior Xavier Brewer, and freshman Bashaud Breeland. Clemson's pass defense has been solid this year, as the Tigers have allowed just 203 yards per game through the air.

Sensabaugh is one of the most underrated defensive players in the ACC. He did not make an All-ACC team, but he been a reliable performer all season. He has 37 tackles and a team-high 11 pass breakups. His only interception was a diving theft that basically ended Auburn's final chance at victory in Death Valley.

Brewer, who has 53 tackles, has been a starter off and on the last two years. He is also one of the most versatile players in the conference, as he has started at both cornerback and safety this year.

Breeland has started six games as a red-shirt freshman. The Allendale, SC native has two interceptions, one he raced back 61 yards against Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game. He has added four pass breakups.

Jonathan Meeks is a fifth defensive back who sees a lot of action. He leads the team in takeaways (5) and has played 664 snaps this year. Meeks has started nine games and has 53 tackles this year.

Corico Hawkins has 73 tackles this year, most among Tiger linebackers. He also has four tackles for loss in his 653 snaps of action this year. Jonathan Willard is behind Hawkins in terms of tackles with 69, fifth-most on the team. Qandon Christian rounds out the starting lineup with 34 tackles in 402 snaps.

Stephone Anthony is a linebacker who will see plenty of time in the Orange Bowl. Anthony suffered an injury early in the season that held him back, but he is healthy now. An honorable mention freshman All-ACC linebacker, Anthony has started each of the last three games and has missed one game due to injury. He has 28 tackles and six tackles for loss, most among freshmen on defense.

Special Teams

Clemson has one of its best kicking combinations in its history in punter Dawson Zimmerman and placekicker Chandler Catanzaro. Zimmerman is averaging 42.0 yards per punt and Catanzaro has converted on 80 percent of his field goals. This is the first time since 1997 that Clemson has had a punter average at least 42 yards a punt and a kicker make 75 percent of his field-goal attempts. Both have been named to top-10 lists this year.

Zimmerman, who carries a 3.93 GPA in English, was a finalist for the Lowe's Senior Class Award and the Wuerffel Award. He has 59 punts for a 42.0-yard average, including 18 punts inside the 20. He is second in Clemson history in career net punting average and sixth in career gross punting. He has averaged at least 40 yards per punt in 10 of the 13 games this year, including each of the first eight games of the season.

Catanzaro was one of 10 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award. The sophomore from Greenville, SC has made 20-25 field goals, including 7-10 from 40 yards or more. For his career, he is 13-19 on field goals of at least 40 yards. That 68.4 percentage is the best in Clemson history.

Catanzaro made 5-5 field goals in the win over Boston College and was named the game's MVP. He also made the game-winner from 43 yards away on the last play of the game to beat Wake Forest 31-28, a kick that gave Clemson the ACC Atlantic Division title.

When it comes to defending kicks, Clemson has allowed one punt return for a score and one kickoff return for a touchdown this year. The kickoff return for a score was the first against a Dabo Swinney coached team. Three Tigers stand out when it comes to kick coverage. Spencer Shuey has 18 special teams tackles to lead the team, while freshman Lateek Townsend has 16 and Carlton Lewis has 15.

The return game is led by Watkins, who is averaging 26.3 yards per kickoff return this year, second-best in the ACC. He is also 21st in the nation and gives Clemson a threat every time he touches the ball. He had 207 kickoff return yards in the win at Maryland, part of his school-record 345 all-purpose yards. That included an 89-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter that gave Clemson the lead for good.

Spencer Benton is a valuable player on special teams. He handles the kickoffs, and 22 times this year he has not allowed the opposing team to start its possession past the 20. Many times he has done it himself, as he has five tackles on kickoff returns this year and 20 for his career, a Clemson record. Benton also is the backup punter.

DAWSON ZIMMERMAN, A FINALIST FOR THE LOWE'S SENIOR CLASS AWARD, IS SECOND IN CLEMSON HISTORY IN CAREER NET PUNTING AVERAGE.

BOWL NOTES

Clemson Bowl History

Clemson has a rich bowl tradition. The Tigers have 16 bowl wins, 18th-most in NCAA history. Their first bowl game was in the 1940 Cotton Bowl when the Tigers defeated a Boston College team (coached by Frank Leahy) 6-3.

With its 2012 Orange Bowl appearance, the Tigers will have played in a bowl game 23 of the last 27 seasons. That is among the top-10 bowl appearances since 1985.

Clemson has beaten some of the top programs in college football history in bowl games. The list of schools Clemson has beaten in a bowl game includes prominent programs Miami (FL), Nebraska, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Penn State, Stanford, Tennessee, and West Virginia.

Clemson won its first three bowl games, wins over Boston College, Missouri, and Miami (FL). The three coaches Clemson beat in those games were Frank Leahy, Don Faurot, and Andy Gustafson, and all three are in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Clemson has a football program that has been steady over the years in bowl games, no matter who has served as head coach of the Tigers. No less than seven different head coaches (Jess Neely, Frank Howard, Danny Ford, Ken Hatfield, Tommy West, Tommy Bowden, Dabo Swinney) have all been victorious in bowl games for the Tigers since the 1939 season.

Overall, nine of Clemson's 16 bowl wins have come against coaches who are in the College Football Hall of Fame, including 2007 inductee Joe Paterno of Penn State. Clemson has four bowl wins over coaches who are in the 200-victory club. Woody Hayes of Ohio State, Tom Osborne of Nebraska, Paterno, and Don Nehlen are all coaches with at least 200 career victories who lost bowl games to Clemson.

Tigers to Face West Virginia in Discover Orange Bowl

Clemson (10-3) will face West Virginia (9-3) in the Discover Orange Bowl on January 4, 2012 at Sun Life Stadium in Miami Gardens, FL. It will be Clemson's first trip to the Orange Bowl since the 1981 season, when the Tigers defeated Nebraska 22-15 to win the National Championship.

"We are very excited to represent the ACC in the Discover Orange Bowl," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "We are especially happy to be in the Discover Orange Bowl, because it is the site of our greatest accomplishment in the history of the program 30 years ago this season.

"I want to congratulate the West Virginia program on getting to this game in Coach (Dana) Holgorsen's first year as head coach. Getting to a BCS bowl in your first year is very rare. They have an outstanding team, one that is similar to ours when it comes to offensive production."

Clemson enters the Orange Bowl as the ACC Champion, while West Virginia is the co-champion of the Big East Conference. The Mountaineers were #23 in the final BCS standings, the highest among the Big East co-champions, and thereby they earned the bid.

Overall, this will be Clemson's fourth trip to the Orange Bowl. Clemson is 2-1 in the three previous appearances. The Tigers defeated Miami (FL) 15-14 in the Orange Bowl at the end of the 1950 season, then lost to Colorado 27-21 in the Orange Bowl at the end of the 1956 season. This will be West Virginia's first appearance in the Orange Bowl.

This will be the second meeting between Clemson and West Virginia on the gridiron. The Tigers won the previous meeting by a score of 27-7 in the 1989 Gator Bowl. Clemson was ranked #14 and West Virginia was ranked #17 entering that game. Clemson will enter this game ranked #14 in both polls again, while West Virginia is #23 in the AP poll and #22 in USA Today poll.

In the previous meeting, Clemson clinched the game in the fourth quarter when then-freshman Chester McGlockton sacked quarterback Major Harris and jarred the ball loose. McGlockton, who passed away in California in December, then recovered the ball in the endzone for a touchdown. Tiger players wore a #91 sticker (representing his jersey number) on their helmets during the ACC Championship game.

This will be Clemson's 34th appearance in a bowl game, the seventh consecutive year the Tigers have been selected. The Tigers have 16 career bowl victories, tied for 18th-most in the nation.

Clemson will enter the Orange Bowl coming off a 38-10 victory over #3 Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game. That win elevated Clemson to a 10-3 record and a #15 final ranking in the BCS standings. It tied for Clemson's highest final ranking in the BCS standings. The Tigers were also #15 in the final 2000 and 2007 BCS standings.

The game will feature two of the top offenses in the nation. Clemson is 21st in the nation in passing yards per game (284.8), while West Virginia is seventh (341.8). Both teams are averaging at least 33 points per game and over 440 yards per game.

Both starting quarterbacks are among the best in the nation in terms of passing efficiency and total offense. Clemson's Tajh Boyd is 18th in total offense yards per game (289.5) with a school-record total, while West Virginia's Geno Smith is ninth in the nation in total offense.

Two of the top four all-purpose players in the nation will also be on display. Tavon Austin of West Virginia is averaging 191.2 yards per game (second-most in the nation), while Clemson's Sammy Watkins is fourth (173.1). Both players are also in the top 25 in the nation in receiving yards per game and kickoff returns.

Clemson vs. Big East Conference

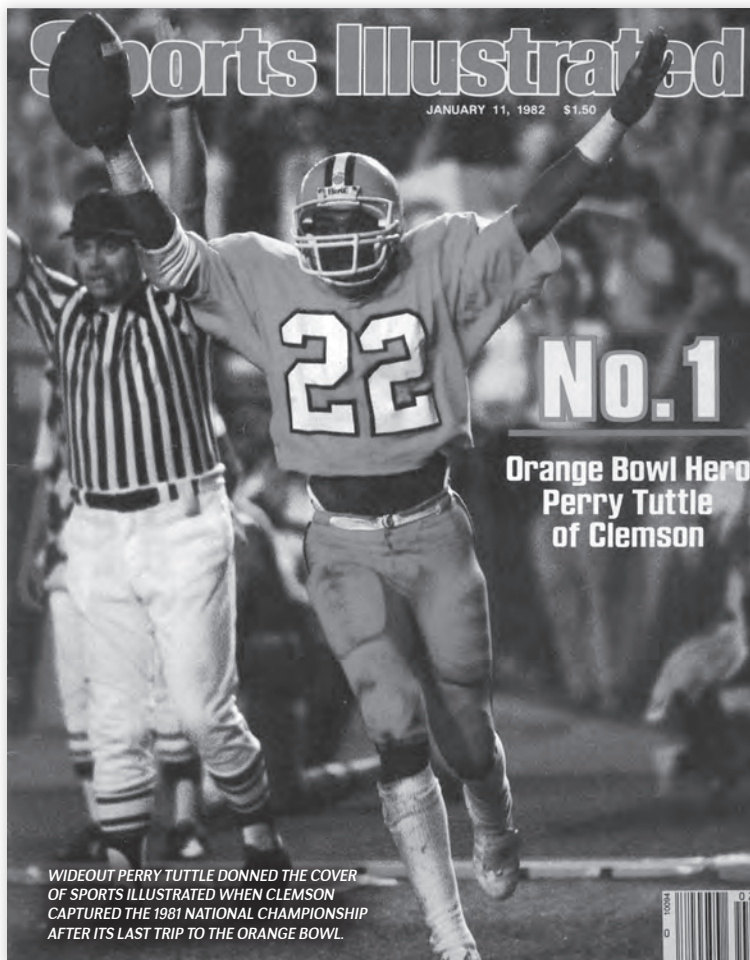

The Orange Bowl will be Clemson's fifth game against a team currently in the Big East Conference. All four of the previous meetings have been in bowl games. The Tigers have a 1-3 record against Big East Conference foes.

The first meeting against a team currently in the Big East Conference took place against Pittsburgh in the 1977 Gator Bowl. The Panthers won that game by a score of 34-3. Clemson earned its first win over a Big East Conference team in the 1989 Gator Bowl when Clemson defeated West Virginia 27-7. The Tigers then played Syracuse in the 1996 Gator Bowl, as the Orange came away with a 41-0 victory.

BOWL NOTES

Last year, Clemson was defeated by South Florida in the Meineke Car Care Bowl in Charlotte by a score of 31-26.

Clemson & West Virginia Ties

- Frank Gillespie, one of the great all-around athletes in Clemson history, was a native of Beckley, WV. A member of the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame, Gillespie was voted the Southern Conference's top all-around athlete for the 1947-48 academic year. He started in football, basketball, and baseball that year for the Tigers. He was president of the Clemson Senior Class and had a double major in engineering.
- The 1975 West Virginia football team practiced at Clemson for a week prior to its Peach Bowl game against N.C. State. That was a matchup of Bobby Bowden (West Virginia) against Lou Holtz (N.C. State). Tommy Bowden was on the West Virginia team and had his first chance to spend time at Clemson. Little did he know that 25 years later, he would be the Tigers' head coach.
- West Virginia Equipment Manager Dan Nehlen is the son of Don Nehlen, the Hall of Fame West Virginia coach who coached against Clemson in the 1989 Gator Bowl.
- Former Clemson Head Coach Tommy Bowden (1999-08) is a 1977 West Virginia graduate. He played on the West Virginia football team when his father, Bobby Bowden, was the head coach.
- Rich Rodriguez went to West Virginia to become head coach in 2001 after serving two years (1999,00) as offensive coordinator under Tommy Bowden at Clemson. Rodriguez is the only West Virginia graduate (1986) to coach for Clemson as an assistant coach. Bowden is the only West Virginia graduate to coach at Clemson as a head coach.
- Clemson played West Virginia in the Tigers' final basketball game of 2011, and now the two schools will meet in Clemson's final football game. West Virginia ended Clemson's basketball season last year in the NCAA Tournament with an 84-76 victory in Tampa, FL. The winning coach in that game, Bob Huggins, was a classmate of Tommy Bowden at West Virginia.

- Clemson quarterback Tajh Boyd and West Virginia running back Shawne Alston were teammates at Phoebus High School in Hampton, VA.
- Clemson wide receiver Sammy Watkins and West Virginia cornerback Brodrick Jenkins were teammates at South Fort Myers (FL) High School. Now, they will be facing each other in the Orange Bowl.

Similar Offensive Statistics

The Orange Bowl figures to be an offensive battle. Both teams are averaging at least 33 points and 440 yards per game. Clemson is a better rushing team, but West Virginia has the better passing numbers. Both have stellar quarterbacks as well. Clemson's Tajh Boyd is 18th in the nation in total offense (289.5), while West Virginia's Geno Smith is ninth (326.6). Both were first-team all-conference picks

Both teams have a top-20 receiver as well. West Virginia's Tavon Austin has 7.4 catches per game (12th-most in the nation), while Clemson's Sammy Watkins has 6.4 receptions per game (27th-most in the nation). Watkins is 16th in receiving yards per game (96.1), while Stedman Bailey of West Virginia is 13th (99.8).

Maryland the Only Common Opponent

Maryland is the only common opponent for Clemson and West Virginia in 2011. Both teams defeated the Terrapins in high-scoring games in College Park. West Virginia defeated Maryland 37-31 on September 17, while Clemson defeated the Terrapins 56-45 on October 15.

West Virginia gained 480 yards in 80 plays against Maryland, 388 passing yards and 92 rushing yards. Clemson was more balanced, as the Tigers gained 306 rushing yards and 270 passing yards for 576 total yards. Sammy Watkins had a Clemson-record 345 all-purpose yards. The Tigers had to overcome an 18-point deficit in the second half to gain victory.

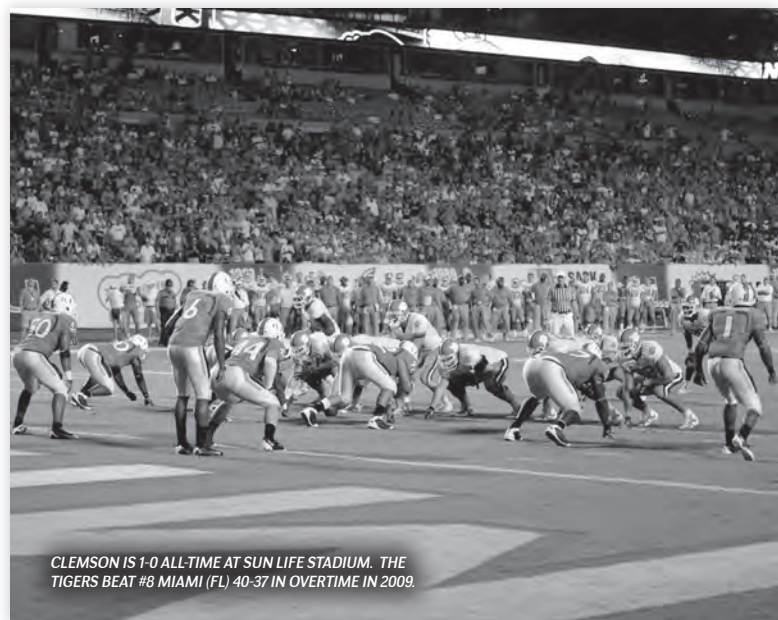

All-Purpose Stars on Display

For the second straight game, Clemson will be involved in a matchup of two of the top five all-purpose players in the nation. In the ACC Championship game, it was Clemson's Sammy Watkins and Virginia Tech's David Wilson. Watkins won that battle with 157 yards compared to 46 for Wilson.

Entering the bowl season, Watkins is fourth in the nation with 173.1 yards per game, second-best in Clemson history, while Tavon Austin of West Virginia is second with 191.2 yards per game.

A look to their statistics shows the players are similar in most areas, with the exception of punt returns. Watkins has just 12 punt return yards this season and Austin has 268 yards. Watkins has the lead in touchdowns with 12 compared to seven for Austin. Watkins also has the advantage in terms of yards per touch, but only by a narrow margin.

Both were All-Americans according to AP. Watkins was the first-team all-purpose player and Austin was third team.

CLEMSON IS 1-0 ALL-TIME AT SUN LIFE STADIUM. THE TIGERS BEAT #8 MIAMI (FL) 40-37 IN OVERTIME IN 2009.

Comparison of Quarterbacks

Two of the top 20 quarterbacks in the nation in terms of passing efficiency and total offense will face off when Clemson plays West Virginia in the Orange Bowl. Both have outstanding pass efficiency ratings of over 145, completion percentages over 60 percent, and have at least 25 touchdown passes.

Clemson's Tajh Boyd was a First-Team All-ACC choice this season and is 18th in the nation in total offense. West Virginia's Geno Smith was the First-Team All-Big East Conference quarterback and is ninth in the nation in total offense.

Tigers 1-0 at Sun Life Stadium

Clemson has a 1-0 record at Sun Life Stadium, and it was one of the most exciting games in Tiger football history. Two season ago on October 24, 2009, Clemson defeated #8 Miami (FL) 40-37 in overtime. Clemson scored the winning touchdown on a 26-yard scoring pass from Kyle Parker to Jacoby Ford.

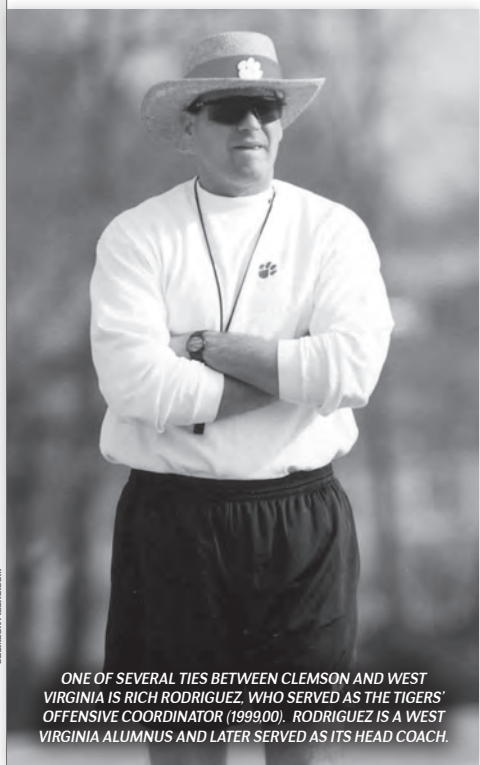

C.J. Spiller led Clemson in the contest with 310 all-purpose yards, then a school record. He had a 95-yard kickoff return for a score to highlight his afternoon's work.

Twenty-four players still on the 2011 Clemson team played in that game against the Hurricanes.

Clemson actually has won three straight games in Miami area. Clemson won the 1981 National Championship with a 22-15 win over Nebraska in the 1982 Orange Bowl. In 2004, Clemson won at Miami (FL) in overtime by a score of 24-17. Both of those games were played in the Orange Bowl.

Tigers Capture Another ACC Championship

Clemson won the 2011 ACC Championship with a 38-10 win over #3 Virginia Tech on December 3. It was the Tigers' first ACC title since 1991. Clemson has been the ACC

Clemson's Highest-Ranked Victories

Clemson tied the school record for the highest-ranked team it has beaten when Dabo Swinney's team came away with a 38-10 win over Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game. The Hokies #3 in USA Today poll and #5 in the AP poll entering the contest.

The other #3-ranked team Clemson has beaten in its history came in November of 2003, when the Tigers defeated Florida State 26-10. Clemson was coming off a 45-17 loss at Wake Forest, a game Clemson trailed 45-0 entering the fourth quarter. The Tigers were coming off a 21-point loss at South Carolina prior to the 2011 ACC Championship game.

Clemson's other two top-five wins came in 1981, a 13-3 victory over #4 Georgia and a 22-15 victory #4 Nebraska. Clemson beat two Hall of Fame coaches in those games as well, Vince Dooley (Georgia) and Tom Osborne (Nebraska).

The Tigers now owns three victories over top-11 teams this year and four top-20 wins overall. When Clemson downed Virginia Tech earlier this year in Blacksburg, the Hokies were #10 in the USA Today poll and #11 in the AP poll. Clemson also owns a win over #11 Florida State in September by a score of 35-30. Those are two of 19 Tiger wins over top-12 teams in history.

Tigers to Face Sixth Top-25 Team

Clemson will take on #22 West Virginia in the Orange Bowl, as it will be the sixth top-25 team the Tigers face this season. Clemson is 4-1 against ranked teams so far this year, wins over #19 Auburn, #11 Florida State, and #10 Virginia Tech in consecutive games along with another win over (#3) Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game. Clemson's only loss to a ranked team was at #13 South Carolina.

The Tigers also faced five top-25 teams in 1988 (3-2), 1999 (1-4), and 2005 (3-2). Therefore, Clemson will set a school record for top-25 opponents when it plays in the Orange Bowl.

Tigers Ranked For 11th Straight Week

Clemson is ranked #14 by AP and USA Today entering the bowl season. It is the 12th consecutive week Clemson has been ranked in the top 25, the longest streak for the program since 2000-01. Clemson was ranked in all 17 polls in 2000, then was ranked in the first 11 polls of 2001 for 28 consecutive rankings in the polls.

The Tigers entered both polls after defeating #19 Auburn on September 17. Clemson was ranked #21 by AP and #22 by USA Today after that victory, then moved up to #13 in the AP poll and #15 in the USA Today poll after its 35-30 win over #11 Florida State. The Tigers then entered the top 10 at #8 after a 23-3 win at #10 Virginia Tech on October 1.

Clemson reached a high of #6 in both polls after an eighth straight win (over North Carolina) to start the season. Clemson was #7 in the AP poll before losing at N.C. State. Clemson dropped 11 spots in the AP poll after that 37-13 loss.

Tigers Third Highest Ranked Not in Preseason Poll

One of the reasons Dabo Swinney is a finalist for the Bear Bryant Award, the Eddie Robinson Award, and the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year Award has been Clemson's national ranking relative to its preseason expectations. The Tigers were unranked in the preseason AP and USA Today polls, yet is ranked #14 in both polls entering the bowl season.

Clemson is one of eight schools in the current AP poll that was not ranked in the preseason poll. Clemson is the third-highest ranked team in the current AP poll not ranked in the preseason. Kansas State (#11) and Michigan (#13) are current top-25 teams ranked higher than Clemson who were also not ranked in the preseason poll.

This should be the fifth time in the last nine years (all in odd-numbered years) that Clemson is ranked in the final top 25 after not being ranked in the preseason. Clemson did it in 2003, 2005, 2007, 2009, and should do it in 2011.

THE TIGER DEFENSE LIMITED #3 VIRGINIA TECH TO 10 POINTS IN CLEMSON'S ACC CHAMPIONSHIP VICTORY ON DECEMBER 3. IT TIED FOR THE HIGHEST-RANKED TEAM CLEMSON HAS DEFEATED IN HISTORY.

Clemson #15 in Final BCS Standings

Clemson was #15 in the final BCS standings in 2011. It marked Clemson's eighth straight week in the top 20 of the BCS standings. Entering this season, the most weeks Clemson appeared in the BCS standings in one season was six (2007). That year, Clemson finished #15 in the BCS, so this season tied for Clemson's best finish in the BCS standings.

BOWL NOTES

CLEMSON IS SEEKING ITS FIRST 11-WIN SEASON SINCE 1981, WHEN LINEBACKER JEFF DAVIS LED THE TIGERS TO THE ORANGE BOWL AND THE NATIONAL TITLE.

Road Warriors

Clemson has a 10-3 record entering the Orange Bowl. The Tigers have had a difficult schedule the last three games of the year, as all have been on the road. And that does not include the 2012 Orange Bowl on the road. Clemson was a perfect 7-0 at home this year, its first 7-0 record at home in history and the first perfect home record since the 1990 season, when the Tigers were 6-0 at home. It was just the second time Clemson won seven home games in a year. The only other year was 1987, when Clemson was 7-1 at home. Danny Pearman, now on Clemson's coaching staff, was a member of that team.

The Tigers' last four games of the 2011 season are away from home, two on opponents' home field and two at neutral sites. The Tigers lost at N.C. State on November 19, then lost at #13 South Carolina on November 26. The ACC Championship game was a victory over #3 Virginia Tech in Charlotte, and now the Tigers will face #22 West Virginia on a neutral field in Miami Gardens, FL.

This will be the first time since 1979 that Clemson has played each of its last four games away from home. In 1979, Clemson finished the regular season with road games at North Carolina, Notre Dame, and South Carolina, then played Baylor in the Peach Bowl in Atlanta. Clemson was 2-2 in those four games.

Clemson's first game next year will be in Atlanta against Auburn. That will make five straight games away from home. The last time the Tigers played five straight games away from home was in the 1964 season, when Clemson played at N.C. State, at Georgia Tech, at Georgia, at Wake Forest, and at TCU on consecutive Saturdays.

Road Wins Over Ranked Teams

Clemson has 64 wins over AP top-25 teams over the years, and 21 of them have taken place on an opponent's home field. The 21st took place on October 1, when the Tigers defeated #10 Virginia Tech 23-3. The 20-point margin was Clemson's largest margin of victory in a road game over a ranked opponent. The previous record was a 11-point win at North Carolina in 1994 and an 11-point win at Florida State in 1989.

The three points allowed in the win over the Hokies tied for the fewest points allowed in a Clemson win over a top-20 team on the road. Clemson also allowed just three points in a 16-3 win at North Carolina in 1983.

Tigers Seeking 11th Victory

Clemson will be looking to reach the 11-win mark in the Orange Bowl. Clemson has not won at least 11 games in a season since 1981, when Clemson was a perfect 12-0 and won the national title.

The Tigers have had eight seasons with at least 10 wins, as the first came in 1948 when Frank Howard's team was 11-0. Clemson had an 11-1 record in 1978 under Charley Pell and Danny Ford. Ford took Clemson to four seasons of double-digit wins. The Tigers have won a bowl game every year it has won at least 10 games.

Tigers One of 20 Teams With 10 Wins

Clemson has won 10 games entering the Orange Bowl, the most wins for the program in one year since 1990, when Clemson finished 10-2. It is the first time Clemson enters a bowl game with 10 wins since the 1981 team was 11-0 entering the Orange Bowl against Nebraska.

Clemson won 10 games in 1987, 1988, 1989, and 1990, but the 10th win came in a bowl game each year. Of course, teams play more games today than they did in the days of 11 regular-season games and no conference title games. Arkansas, Michigan, and South Carolina are the only states with two FBS teams with at least 10 wins.

Tigers Started 8-0

Clemson won its first eight games this year, just the fourth time in school history that happened and the first time since 2000. That year, Clemson's streak ended with a 31-28 loss to Georgia Tech.

The Tiger record for consecutive wins is 15, set from 1947-49 under Head Coach Frank Howard. Clemson won its last three games of 1947, then went 11-0 in 1948. The Tigers won the 1949 season-opener against Presbyterian College, but the streak was snapped with a loss to Rice.

Overall, it was the 13th time in school history Clemson won at least eight games.

Balanced Offense

Clemson is one of seven schools nationally with a 1,000-yard rusher, 1,000-yard receiver, and 3,000-yard passer this year. Andre Ellington is the top rusher with 1,062 yards, Sammy Watkins is the top receiver with 1,153 yards, and Tajh Boyd is the top passer with 3,578 yards. Watkins and Boyd have both established single-season records in their respective categories.

The other schools to accomplish this feat are Arizona State, Baylor, Fresno State, Oklahoma State, Southern California, and Texas A&M.

Offensive Improvement

Clemson has made significant improvement in terms of national rankings in the major statistical areas. That includes total offense, where Clemson has gone from 88th in the nation to 29th, and in scoring offense, where Clemson has improved from 86th to 27th. Clemson was 10th in the ACC in scoring last year and is second this year.

Consecutive 50+ Point Games

Clemson scored at least 56 points in consecutive games in October, the first time that has happened in school history. It was the first time Clemson scored at least 50 points in consecutive ACC games and the first time against anyone since 2006, when Clemson had 50-point games in wins over North Carolina and Louisiana Tech.

Dabo Swinney's Tigers defeated Maryland 56-45 on October 15, then defeated North Carolina 59-38 on October 22. Clemson became just the third ACC team in history with consecutive games of at least 56 points and the first to do it since 1992. Virginia accomplished the feat in 1990 and Florida State did it in 1992.

Turnovers the Key Statistic

Turnovers have been the key statistic when evaluating wins and losses for Clemson this year. In the 10 games Clemson has won, the Tigers have combined to commit just 11 turnovers and forced 20 for a +9 turnover margin. In Clemson's three losses, the Tigers have combined to commit nine and forced just two for a -7 turnover margin. The Tigers are 8-0 this year when they at least tie the turnover margin statistic and 2-3 when they lose it.

BOWL NOTES

Odd But True

It is an odd-numbered season, so all Tiger fans should be excited. Since 1977, odd numbered seasons have been seasons of success, if not landmark years, at Clemson.

That 1977 season saw Clemson go to a bowl game for the first time in 18 years under first-year Head Coach Charley Pell. The Tigers finished with a #19 ranking, Clemson's first top-20 ranking since 1959.

Of course, 1981 was the ultimate in football accomplishment for the program, a 12-0 record and the National Championship under third-year Head Coach Danny Ford, who was 33 at the time. The Tigers beat Nebraska to claim the National Championship.

The 1991 season ended in an ACC title for the Tigers thanks to a 6-0-1 mark in the league and a 9-2-1 overall record. The team finished ranked #17 in the nation. This year is the 20-year anniversary of that accomplishment.

Eight times (including 2011) since 1977 Clemson has been unranked in the preseason poll in an odd-numbered year, but finished the year in the top 25. However, just once since 1977 (1986) has Clemson been unranked in the preseason poll of an even-numbered year, then finished in the top 25.

The trend of odd seasons of success has continued in this decade. In fact, it has been a remarkable pattern. Since 2002, each of the odd-numbered years, Clemson has finished the season ranked in the top 25 of all polls even though it was not ranked in the preseason. In the even-numbered seasons since 2002, Clemson has failed to obtain a top-25 ranking at season's end even though it was ranked in the preseason three times.

In each of the last five odd-numbered seasons (2003,05,07,09,11), Clemson has won at least 64.3 percent of its games. In each of the even-numbered seasons since 2002, Clemson has won at least 60 percent of its games only once, and that was in 2006 when the Tigers finished with an 8-5 record after a 7-1 start.

Let's look at the last four odd-numbered seasons. The 2003 Tigers, behind sophomore quarterback Charlie Whitehurst, had a 9-4 record and finished with a #22 ranking after a 4-0 run to end the season that included a 63-17 victory at South Carolina along with wins over #3 Florida State and #6 Tennessee.

The 2005 season included a 21-point victory over eventual ACC Champion Florida State, a fourth-straight win over South Carolina under Whitehurst's direction, and a bowl victory over Colorado. The 2007 season saw the Tigers record a 9-3 regular-season ledger, including a 24-18 victory over #19th Florida State, the program's fifth straight win over a top-25 team under Tommy Bowden's direction.

The 2009 season saw the Tigers win the ACC Atlantic Division title under Head Coach Dabo Swinney. C.J. Spiller was unanimous All-American and finished sixth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy, tied for the highest finish by a Tiger. Clemson defeated Florida State and Miami (FL) in the same season for the first time, then defeated Kentucky in the Music City Bowl.

The trend has continued this season with a 10-3 record, a top-15 ranking in all polls, and an ACC Championship.

Clemson Has Experienced Offensive Line

Clemson had four starters on the offensive line returning from last year, and that has contributed to the Tigers' balanced performance this year. The Tigers have over 2,000 rushing yards and 3,000 passing yards to go with 20 rushing touchdowns and 31 receiving touchdowns.

Seven players are in the mix on the offensive line when it comes to consistent playing time, and those seven players have combined for 183 career starts. Landon Walker has started more games than any other Tiger in history with 48, while Antoine McClain has started 40 games, all consecutively.

Starting center Dalton Freeman has started 35 games, all consecutively, and he is only a junior. Freeman was a First-Team All-ACC pick and was a finalist for the Rimington Trophy. Starting left offensive tackle Phillip Price was a first-team All-ACC selection by CBSsports.com and has had an outstanding season in his only year as a starter.

Youth Served

Clemson has a young squad this year with 42 (first-year and red-shirt) freshmen among the 85 players on scholarship. The record for most freshman lettermen in a season is 23, set in 1985 when Danny Ford lettered 10 first-year freshmen and 13 red-shirt freshmen. The second-most is 21 in 2006. That was C.J. Spiller's freshman season at Clemson.

The Tigers' first-year freshman class has 27 players this year, four who entered in January and 23 who entered over the summer. The record for first-year freshmen to letter in a season is 10 (1985,94).

Clemson played 24 freshmen in the win over Troy to open the season, 12 first-year freshmen and 12 red-shirt freshmen. Now the number is up to 29, 13 first-year freshmen and 16 red-shirt freshmen. Clemson is tied for first in the nation in freshmen played this year.

BOWL NOTES

Greatest Single-Season Improvements

Clemson has won four more games in 2011 than it won last year. The Tigers were 6-7 last year and now have a 10-3 mark this year, an improvement of four wins. The last time Clemson improved by four wins from one year to the next was in 1993. The Tigers were 5-6 in 1992, then went 9-3 the following year.

The Tiger record for victory improvement from one year to another is seven. The 1947 Clemson team had a 4-5 record, then Clemson amassed a perfect 11-0 ledger in 1948.

Tigers Seventh Most Improved Offense

Clemson has improved its total offense by 106 yards per game over last year, the seventh-best improvement in the nation. In 2010, the Tigers averaged just 334.6 yards per game. Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris' unit has improved that to 440.6 yards per game this year. Toledo is the most improved team on offense this year, increasing its average by 127.8 yards per game.

Stopping Streaks I

On September 17, Clemson ended Auburn's 17-game winning streak, the longest streak in Auburn history, the longest active streak in the nation at the time, and the longest streak Clemson has ended in its history. Clemson also ended its 14-game losing streak to Auburn. The ACC Tigers had not beaten the SEC Tigers since the 1951 campaign.

At Virginia Tech on October 1, Clemson ended the Hokies' 12-game ACC winning streak, their 14-game regular-season winning streak, and their five-game winning streak against Clemson. The Tigers had not beaten Virginia Tech since 1989.

Stopping Streaks II

Clemson ended Auburn's 17-game winning streak on September 17 with a 38-24 victory. Clemson overcame a 14-point deficit in the first half, the first time Clemson had done that to gain victory since the 2006 Wake Forest game in Winston-Salem, NC. That was the longest streak Clemson has snapped in school history. The previous record was a 15-game winning streak by Georgia that Clemson snapped in 1981.

Tigers Downs Defending National Champion...Again

Clemson is now 3-0 against the defending National Champion in Memorial Stadium. The Tigers first defeated the defending champion in 1981, when Clemson beat Georgia 13-3. The Bulldogs had won the title the previous year. Clemson defeated Georgia Tech in 1991 9-7 in Death Valley one year after the Yellow Jackets had won the national title. On September 17, 2011, Clemson defeated #19 Auburn 38-24, just three games removed from Auburn's 2010 National Championship.

In all three cases, Clemson gained the victory in the third game of the season against a team that had beaten the Tigers in a close game the year before.

Summary of Clemson's Offensive Numbers vs. Auburn

- Had 624 yards, third-most in Clemson history. It was the most yards by Clemson against an SEC team in history.
- Had 32 first downs, fourth-most in Clemson history.
- Had 238 rushing yards and 386 passing yards, just the sixth game in history the Tigers had at least 300 passing yards and 200 rushing yards in one game.
- Converted 14-18 third downs, tied for the second-most third-down conversions in Clemson history and the second-best percentage (77.8) in school history.
- Totaled 92 plays, tied for fifth-most in Clemson history.
- Finished the game with an 18-play drive that took 9:34 off the clock. It tied for the third-longest (time) drive in Clemson history.

Clemson Named National Team-of-the-Week

Clemson was named national team-of-the-week for its 35-30 win over #11 Florida State on September 24. It was just the second time Clemson was the recipient of the award from the Football Writers Association of America that dates to 2002.

The Tigers downed the Seminoles to give them a second win over a top-20 team in eight days, just the fourth time the program had wins over ranked teams in consecutive weeks.

Clemson gained 443 yards and scored 35 points against Florida State, who entered the game fifth in the nation in total defense, allowing just 195 yards per game. The Seminoles had also allowed just 11 points per game entering the contest.

Tajh Boyd completed 22-35 passes for 344 yards and added 19 rushing yards for 363 yards of total offense. His favorite target was freshman Sammy Watkins, who had seven catches for 141 yards and two touchdowns. Defensive tackle Rennie Moore had a sack on Florida State's final offensive play to preserve the victory, Clemson's fifth in a row over the Seminoles in Death Valley. Clemson held Florida State to just 29 rushing yards.

Clemson last won the award from the FWAA in 2003 after a 26-10 victory over #3 Florida State.

Second-Best Comeback on Record

Clemson overcame an 18-point deficit on two occasions and defeated Maryland 56-45 on October 15 in College Park, MD. It was the highest-scoring game for the Tigers in an ACC contest since the Tigers scored 59 in a 59-31 win over Duke in 2001. The 101 combined points were the most in a Clemson game since the Tigers defeated Wake Forest 82-24 on October 31, 1981.

The Tigers fell behind 28-10 in the first half, as the Terapins scored 14 early points off Clemson turnovers. The Tigers had allowed just 16 opponent points off turnovers in the first six games, then Maryland totaled 14 in the first quarter.

Clemson still trailed 35-17 in the third quarter and Maryland had possession. However, freshman Bashaud Breeland hauled in a one-handed interception that set up a score, as Clemson went on a 25-3 run to take a 42-38 lead.

Maryland came back to take a 45-42 lead on a long drive with seven minutes left. But, Sammy Watkins returned the ensuing kickoff 89 yards for a touchdown. It gave Clemson a 49-45 lead and the Tigers never trailed again. Andre Ellington, who rushed for a career-high 212 yards, clinched the game with a 44-yard touchdown run with 3:55 minutes left in the game.

It was the second-largest deficit overcome to gain victory in school history. The only comeback that is better took place in 1992, when Clemson overcame a 28-point deficit at Virginia to win 29-28.

Earlier this year, Clemson trailed Auburn by 14 points (21-7) before winning 38-24. Clemson was also down 14 points against Wake Forest (28-14) and came back to win 31-28 on a field goal on the last play of the game.

Clemson had overcome a 14-point deficit or more nine times in 115 years prior to this year. This 2011 team has now done it three times. Tajh Boyd is Clemson's career leader from the quarterback position in overcoming deficits of 14 points or more.

THANKS IN LARGE PART TO THE EFFORTS OF SAMMY WATKINS, CLEMSON GAINED THE UPPER HAND IN THE ACC ATLANTIC DIVISION WITH A 35-30 WIN OVER #11 FLORIDA STATE ON SEPTEMBER 24. CLEMSON WAS NAMED NATIONAL TEAM-OF-THE-WEEK BY THE FOOTBALL WRITERS ASSOCIATION.

BOWL NOTES

Close Games

Unlike 2010, Clemson has not had that many close games this year. The Tigers had six games decided by a touchdown or less in 2010 and had a 1-5 record in those games. This year, Clemson has had just two games decided by a touchdown or less, and the Tigers won both games, 35-30 over Florida State and 31-28 over Wake Forest. Ten of Clemson's 13 games so far this year have been decided by double digits, including six games decided by 20 points or more.

It is interesting to note that Clemson's largest margin of victory this year was 28 points (38-10) in the ACC Championship game victory over #3 Virginia Tech. That tied for the highest-ranked opponent Clemson has beaten in its history.

Scoring in 22 Straight Quarters

Clemson set a school record for consecutive quarters scoring during the North Carolina game. That streak also came to an end in Clemson's 59-38 win. The Tigers scored in 22 straight quarters, breaking the record of 20 set in 1983.

It is interesting to note that four of the top five streaks in school history have been stopped by North Carolina. Clemson has scored in 45 of the 52 quarters this season.

Most Consecutive Quarters Scoring

11-1-2003	1-2-2004	Tennessee (3rd)	15

Third Quarter Big For Clemson

The third quarter has been the big quarter for Clemson this year. That is a good indication of halftime adjustments made by Clemson coaches.

Clemson has outscored the opposition 145-85 in the third quarter. The 145 points are already the most in school history for a third quarter and the third-highest scoring quarter in Tiger history. The record for a quarter is 154 in the second quarter in 2009. The Tigers scored 151 points in the second quarter in 2007.

The Tigers' third-quarter dominance was never stronger than in the ACC Championship game when Clemson had three possessions and scored three touchdowns, winning the quarter 21-0 against Virginia Tech. Clemson also scored a fourth touchdown to start the second half on a drive that started in the third quarter and finished with a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Clemson has had 47 possessions that have started in the third quarter, and the Tigers have scored 22 touchdowns and five field goals on those drives. That is 27 scoring drives out of 47 in the third quarter. Tajh Boyd has been very productive in the quarter, as he has thrown 13 touchdown passes in the third quarter. Before this year, only 10 Tigers had thrown at least 13 touchdowns in an entire season.

Clemson has really been productive in all quarters. If Clemson can score 10 points in the second quarter in the Orange Bowl, it would give the Tigers 100 points in every quarter this year, and that would be a first in Clemson history. The Tigers already have at least 100 points in the first, third, and fourth quarters.

35-Point Quarter

Clemson scored 35 points in the third quarter of its 59-38 win over North Carolina on October 22. It was the most points in a quarter since the Tigers scored 35 points against Wake Forest in an 82-24 victory in 1981. Fittingly, the 1981 team was honored at halftime of the North Carolina game on the occasion of the team's 30-year anniversary of winning the national title.

Christopher "Kit" Southwick set a Tiger mascot pushup record when he did 225 pushups during the third quarter of the North Carolina game. The previous record was 210 by Dan Licata against Central Michigan in 2007.

The 35 points in the third quarter tied the Tiger record for points in a quarter. The 1981 team scored 35 points in the second quarter of that 1981 Wake Forest game. Those are the only 35-point quarters in Clemson history.

Future Schedules

Clemson will play Auburn in the Georgia Dome to open the 2012 season, a game that was announced prior to the Clemson vs. Auburn game last season. The exact date and time of that game will be announced at a later date. That will conclude a three-game series between the ACC and SEC schools who share the same mascot. Clemson will also play Ball State, Furman, and South Carolina, all at home, in 2012.

When Clemson plays Georgia in 2013 and 2014, it will be the first meetings between the two schools since the 2002 and 2003 seasons.

There is a schedule for 2014, but it is likely to change with the addition of Pittsburgh and Syracuse to the ACC.

Academics & Athletics

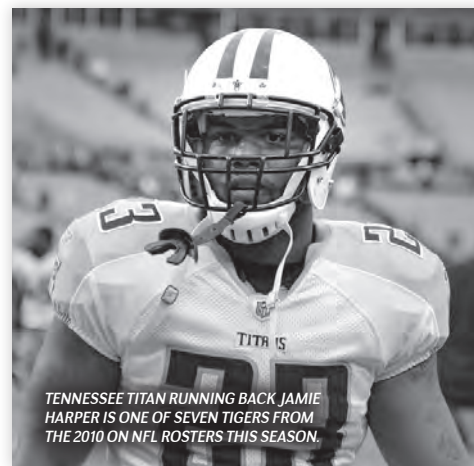

Clemson is one of five schools nationally to rank in the top 25 of the U.S. News & World Report Top Public Institutions and in the top 25 of the BCS standings. Clemson is #25 among public institutions and #15 in the final BCS standings. The other four schools in both are Georgia, Michigan, Penn State, and Wisconsin. Only Michigan and Wisconsin are higher than Clemson in the BCS standings among schools ranked in the top 25 of the public institutions.

Tigers on NFL Rosters

Clemson has had 26 former players on NFL rosters this year. The list includes seven players from the 2010 team.

The first-year NFL players from Clemson include Da'Quan Bowers (Tampa Bay), Marcus Gilchrist (San Diego), Chris Hairston (Buffalo), Jamie Harper (Tennessee), Jarvis Jenkins (Washington), and Byron Maxwell (Seattle). Jenkins suffered a torn ACL in a preseason game and missed the entire season.

The veteran of the group is Brian Dawkins, a senior at Clemson in 1995 who is playing in his 17th NFL season. A total of 11 players from the 2009 Clemson team that won the ACC Atlantic Division title are on NFL rosters.

Five First-Team All-ACC Tigers

Five Tigers were named First-Team All-ACC in 2011, including four on offense. Clemson's five first-team players were more than any other school. The Tigers had nine combined selections on the two teams, also more than any other school.

The first-team selections on offense were tight end Dwayne Allen, quarterback Tajh Boyd, center Dalton Freeman, and wide receiver Sammy Watkins. Defensive end Andre Branch was a first-team pick as well. It marked the first time since 2006 that Clemson had five first-team selections.

Second-team selections were Andre Ellington (RB), Chandler Catanzaro (PK), Brandon Thompson (DT), and Watkins (SP). Clemson had three Honorable Mention All-ACC selections in Phillip Price (OT), Landon Walker (OT), and Dawson Zimmerman.

Clemson had four of the 11 players named First-Team All-ACC on offense, the most for the program since 2007, but it was the first time in Clemson history that the Tigers had four underclassmen earn first-team honors on offense.

Boyd became the first Clemson quarterback to earn First-Team All-ACC honors since Woodrow Dantzler was named First-Team All-ACC as a senior in 2001. Boyd is the first Clemson underclassman to earn First-Team All-ACC honors since Homer Jordan was a first-team pick in 1981 as a junior. Boyd is the first Clemson sophomore to earn First-Team All-ACC honors at quarterback since Harvey White in 1957.

Watkins was named First-Team All-ACC at wide receiver. He is the first Clemson first-year freshman to be named

BOWL NOTES

First-Team All-ACC since Anthony Simmons (LB) in 1995. Watkins is Clemson's first first-year freshman offensive player named First-Team All-ACC since Ronald Williams (1990) did so as a running back. Williams' son, DeShawn Williams, is a classmate and teammate of Watkins on the 2011 team. Watkins is the first Clemson freshman to earn First-Team All-ACC honors.

Allen was named First-Team All-ACC after being named Second-Team All-ACC as a sophomore in 2010. Allen has established Clemson records for receptions (48) and receiving yards (577) for a tight end. He also has eight receiving touchdowns, most in Clemson history by a tight end. Allen received the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end.

Freeman is the First-Team All-ACC center. He has started every game this year and is a big reason the Tigers are in the top 30 in the nation in total offense. He was finalist for the Rimington Trophy as well. Freeman is the first Clemson center to earn First-Team All-ACC honors since 2000, when Kyle Young was named as a junior.

Branch is a First-Team All-ACC pick at defensive end. The native of Richmond, VA leads the ACC in sacks (10.5) and is among the league leaders in tackles for loss (16).

Leading the second-team selections is defensive tackle Brandon Thompson. The senior has 73 tackles this year, tied for third-most on the team, and has a team-tying-best 18 quarterback pressures.

Ellington was named Second-Team All-ACC as a running back. Ellington has 1,062 rushing yards in 12 games. He has scored 10 touchdowns and is second on the team in all-purpose yards (1,302). He is also fourth in the ACC in rushing yards per game.

Catanzaro is second in the ACC in field goals and has made 20-25 this year. That includes 7-10 on field goals of 40+ yards. His 109 points are second-most in the ACC.

Watkins is the first Tiger to earn All-ACC honors at two different positions since 2009, when C.J. Spiller was named First-Team All-ACC as a kick returner and Second-Team All-ACC as a running back. Watkins is second in the ACC in kickoff return average (26.2). Watkins has 2,077 all-purpose yards, second-most in Clemson history.

Sunshine State Tigers

The Orange Bowl is a special game for the nine Tigers on the postseason roster from the state of Florida. Three of the nine are starters, including freshman wideout Sammy Watkins, who is Clemson's top receiver and a first-team All-American as a first-year freshman. Also in the starting lineup should be Xavier Brewer (Jacksonville) and Rashard Hall (Saint Augustine).

Seven Tigers With a 50-Yard Play

An indication of the amount of weapons on the Tiger offense is the number of players with a play of 50 yards or more this year. Clemson has seven different players who have been involved in 12 scrimmage plays of 50 yards or more. The previous record for a season is also seven players, established in 2001.

Sammy Watkins has had five different pass plays of at least 50 yards, including two 62-yard receptions and a 65-yard catch. Mike Bellamy had a 75-yard run, Andre Ellington had a 74-yard run, Dwayne Allen had a 54-yard reception, DeAndre Hopkins had a 50-yard catch, and Martavis Bryant had a 54-yard reception. Tight end Brandon Ford had a 50-yard reception at N.C. State to give Clemson seven different players with a 50-yard play from scrimmage in 2011.

Six Tigers Have Played in Three Bowls

Clemson has an experienced team when it comes to playing in bowl games. Forty active players have participated in at least one bowl game, 22 in at least two bowl games, and six players have participated in three bowl games. When it comes to starts, 16 have started at least one game, six have started at least two games, and one has started three games.

Landon Walker is the only player on the team to start three bowl games. He has played 162 combined snaps in those three games, more than any other active Tiger. Dwayne Allen, Dalton Freeman, Corico Hawkins, Antoine McClain, Walker, and Dawson Zimmerman have all started at least two bowl games.

The six players on the roster who have played in three bowl games are Kourtnei Brown, Chad Diehl, McClain, Coty Sensabaugh, Brandon Thompson, and Walker. Brown is the only member of the team who played in the 2007 Chick-fil-A Bowl against Auburn. He red-shirted the 2009 season and did not play in the Music City Bowl that year.

Four Sons of Former Tigers on 2011 Team

Four sons of former Clemson football players are on the 2011 team. Starting offensive tackle Landon Walker is the son of Gary Walker, who was a letterman on Clemson's 1981 National Championship team. The same goes for Shaq Anthony, a first-year freshman whose father, Vernie Anthony, also lettered on the 1981 National Championship team.

Freshman defensive lineman DeShawn Williams is the son of running back Ronald Williams, who was the leading rusher (941 yards) on Clemson's 1990 team as a first-year freshman, still the Clemson record for a first-year freshman. Ronald Williams played for the Tigers from 1990-92.

Walk-on Taylor Watson is the son of Ronald Watson, who was a freshman on the 1981 team.

Branch & Steele Honored by Rivals.com

Defensive end Andre Branch and Defensive Coordinator Kevin Steele were honored by Rivals.com on October 2. Branch was named ACC player-of-the-week by the national website and Steele was named national coordinator-of-the-week. It was the second time this year a Clemson coordinator was honored. Offensive coordinator Chad Morris won the honor when Clemson defeated Auburn.

Steele's defense held #10 Virginia Tech to three points, the first time since 1995 that the Hokies did not score a touchdown at home. Virginia Tech also had just 258 yards and converted just 4-16 third downs. The Clemson defense did a good job of not giving up big plays, as the Hokies' longest play was 19 yards.

Clemson's defense had four sacks in the game, and all four were credited to Branch. He also was credited with six tackles for loss, tying a Clemson record. The four sacks also tied a school record.

1,000-Yard Rusher & Receiver

Junior Andre Ellington went over the 1,000-yard rushing mark in the win over #3 Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game, giving the Tigers their 12th different 1,000 yard rusher in history. There have been 15 1,000-yard seasons so far, as Raymond Priestner, Woodrow Dantzler, and James Davis had two 1,000-yard rushing seasons during their careers.

Clemson had not had a 1,000-yard rusher since the 2009 season, when C.J. Spiller rushed for 1,212 yards. The school record is 1,345 rushing yards by Raymond Priestner in 1996. He also has the second most in a season with 1,322 in 1995.

When Ellington reached 1,000 rushing yards, the 2011 team became just the third in Clemson history with a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver. Sammy Watkins already had 1,000 receiving yards receiving and now has 1,153. The only other Tiger teams to do it are the 2000 and 2007 squads.

The 2011 team is the first with a 1,000-yard rusher, 1,000-yard receiver, and a 3,000-yard passer. Tajh Boyd has passed for 3,578 yards this season.

Tiger Teams With 1,000-Yard Rusher & Receiver

Year	Rusher(s)	Receiver
2000	Woodrow Dantzler (1,028) Travis Zachery (1,027)	Rod Gardner (1,050)
2007	James Davis (1,064)	Aaron Kelly (1,081)
2011	Andre Ellington (1,062)	Sammy Watkins (1,153)

Brandon Thomas & Brandon Thompson

If you are covering the Tigers for the first time this year, don't get your Brandons confused. There is offensive lineman Brandon Thomas, and there is defensive tackle Brandon Thompson. Both played a big role in Clemson's win over #19 Auburn.

Thomas did not start against Auburn, but he played 89 of the 94 offensive snaps as a guard. Thompson, who is tied for third on the team in tackles (73) in his third year as a starter, had six tackles and a tackle for loss in 60 snaps against Auburn.

BOWL NOTES

Thomas replaced Mason Cloy, who was injured in the Auburn game. Cloy was replacing David Smith, who had suffered a shoulder surgery the Tuesday prior to the game. Thomas played 136 snaps as a freshman in 2010, then played 89 snaps against the defending National Champion. He has started all but one game since. Thomas added six knockdowns in the win at Maryland.

Punting & Placekicking Combo

Clemson has an outstanding kicking combination this year in punter Dawson Zimmerman and placekicker Chandler Catanzaro. Zimmerman is averaging 42.0 yards on 59 punts, and has 18 punts inside the 20 and nine punts of 50+ yards. Catanzaro has made 20-25 field goals, including 7-10 on field goals of 40+ yards.

If the season ended today, it would be the first season since 1997 that Clemson has a player averaging 42 yards per punt and another player who has made at least 75 percent of his field-goal attempts. The last time it happened was 1997, when Kevin Laird averaged 42.8 yards per punt and David Richardson made 13-15 field-goal attempts (.867).

Overall, it has happened just six times in Clemson history, all between 1983 and 1997.

42 Yards Per Punt & 75 Percent on FGs

Year	Punter	Y/P	Placekicker	FG-A	Pct.
1983	Dale Hatcher	43.6	Bob Paulling	18-20	90.0

Allen & Watkins First-Team AP All-Americans

Freshman Sammy Watkins and junior Dwayne Allen were both named first-team All-Americans by AP. Defensive end Andre Branch was a third-team selection, giving Clemson three AP All-Americans for the first time since 1991.

Watkins, who was named as the all-purpose player, is the first first-year freshman in ACC history to be named an AP First-Team All-American and the first at any school since Oklahoma running back Adrian Peterson was honored in 2004. Allen was named as the tight end, the first Tiger tight end to earn AP First-Team All-America honors since Bennie Cunningham in 1974.

This marks the first time Clemson has had two AP First-Team All-Americans in the same year. Not even Clemson's 1981 National Championship team had two first-team selections by AP.

This is the first time Clemson has had three players chosen first, second, or third team by AP since 1991, when Jeb Flesch was a first-team choice at offensive guard, Rob Bodine was a second-team selection at middle guard, and Ed McDaniel was a third-team selection at linebacker.

This is the third straight year Clemson has had an AP First-Team All-American, the first three-year stretch in school history. Clemson, Michigan State, Oklahoma State and Stanford are the only schools in the nation with an AP First-Team All-American each of the last three years.

Watkins has 77 catches for 1,153 yards and 11 touchdowns this year. He led all freshmen nationally in those categories and has set ACC freshman records as well. He is fourth in the nation in all-purpose yards per game (173.1), second in Tiger history behind C.J. Spiller's total in 2009. Spiller was an AP First-Team All-American as the all-purpose player that year, so Clemson has had the all-purpose first-team All-American two of the last three years.

Allen has 48 receptions for 577 yards and eight touchdowns this year, school records in all three categories by a tight end. He won the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end.

Branch leads the ACC in sacks (10.5) and has 16 tackles for loss. He has 78 tackles, second-most on the team, and is trying to become the first defensive lineman to lead Clemson in tackles since William Perry in 1984.

Boyd & Watkins Regular ACC Players-of-the-Week

Freshman wide receiver Sammy Watkins was honored seven times by the ACC this year, four times as the ACC Rookie-of-the-Week and three times as ACC Receiver-of-the-Week. Watkins broke the Clemson record for being honored by the league in one season. Anthony Simmons, a freshman linebacker in 1995 who was named national freshman-of-the-year by UPI, was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Week four times and Defensive Lineman-of-the-Week twice for six total honors.

Watkins was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Week in wins over Wofford, Auburn, Boston College, and Maryland, and he was named ACC Receiver-of-the-Week for his performances against Auburn, Florida State, and Maryland. He was honored twice after the Maryland and Auburn games.

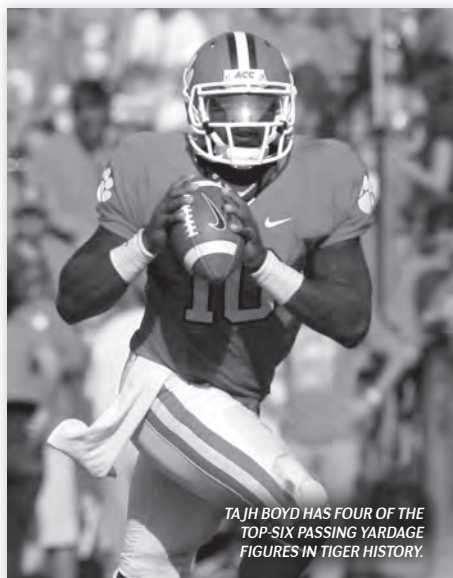

Watkins has already been named ACC Player-of-the-Week more than any other receiver in Clemson history in one season, and has already tied the career record. Perry Tuttle was also named ACC Player-of-the-Week three times as a wide receiver between 1979-81. It should be noted that the ACC now picks a receive-of-the-week, something it only started doing in 2011. Tuttle and others had to compete against quarterbacks and running backs.

Quarterback Tajh Boyd has been named ACC Offensive Back-of-the-Week three times this year in wins over Auburn, Florida State, and North Carolina. Boyd tied the Tiger record for ACC Player-of-the-Week selections by a quarterback, as Woodrow Dantzler was named three times in 2001. Dantzler was named ACC Player-of-the-Week six times in his career between 1998-01, second-most in school history. Keith Adams holds the record with seven selections in a career and five times in a season (1999).

Overall, Clemson had 10 different players named ACC Player-of-the-Week in 2011.

Boyd Among Best in ACC History

Tajh Boyd has established Clemson single-season records for passing yards (3,578), total offense (3,764), passing touchdowns (31), and touchdown responsibility (36) this year. In fact, his 36 touchdowns are just one off the ACC record of 37 set by Philip Rivers of N.C. State in 2003 and Russell Wilson of N.C. State in 2010.

TAJH BOYD HAS FOUR OF THE TOP-SIX PASSING YARDAGE FIGURES IN TIGER HISTORY.

The sophomore's 2011 season actually is in the top six in ACC history in all four areas. He is fifth in passing yards, sixth in total offense, tied for fourth in passing touchdowns, and third in touchdown responsibility. He needs just three passing touchdowns to tie the ACC single-season record of 34 set by Rivers as a senior in 2003.

Boyd Can Set Wins Record For First-Year Starter

Tajh Boyd has led Clemson to 10 victories in 2011, his first year as a starter. With one more win, he will set the Tiger record for victories by a starting quarterback in his first year as a starter. The record is 10, set by Boyd, Chris Morocco (1989), and DeChane Cameron (1990). Morocco was a senior but in his first year as starter in 1989, and Cameron was a junior in 1990 when he was in his first year as starter. Kyle Parker had nine wins in 2009 in his first year as well.

Boyd is a sophomore, but he does not own the sophomore record for wins (outright)...yet. That is also held by Rodney Williams, who won 10 games as a sophomore in 1986, but that was not Williams' first year as starter. Williams started as a freshman in 1985.

Boyd a Top-10 Regular

Tajh Boyd passed for a career-high 386 yards in the victory #19 Auburn on September 17, then threw for 344 yards in the victory over #11 Florida State the next week. He joined Charlie Whitehurst as the only Tigers in history to pass for 300 yards in consecutive games. Whitehurst did it in the final two regular-season games of 2003.

A look to the list below shows that Boyd did more than just break the 300-yard mark, he has had two of the top-four yardage games in Tiger history.

Boyd has already set four records this year. He passed for at least three touchdowns in each of the his four starts, the record for consecutive games throwing at least three touchdown passes.

BOWL NOTES

Branch a Finalist For Hendricks Award

Defensive end Andre Branch was named a finalist for the Ted Hendricks Award, the honor that goes to the top defensive end in the nation. It was the second straight year Clemson had a finalist for the Hendricks Award, as Da'Quan Bowers was the 2010 winner.

Branch leads the ACC in sacks (10.5) and also paces the conference in tackles for loss (16). He has 78 tackles, second-most on the team, and is trying to become the first lineman to lead the Tigers in tackles since 1984, when William Perry led the squad with 100 tackles.

Branch, a First-Team All-ACC player from Richmond, VA, had four sacks and six tackles for loss at #10 Virginia Tech on October 1, leading the Tigers to a 23-3 win. He then recovered a fumble on the opening snap of the ACC Championship game that enabled Clemson to get on the right track in its 38-10 win over the Hokies on December 3.

Brown Has Career Day

Graduate defensive end Kourtnei Brown, a native of Charlotte, NC, had the game of his life in the Tigers' victory over North Carolina on October 22. He had two defensive returns for touchdowns, the first time a Tiger has done that since 1954.

First, Brown had a 20-yard interception return for a touchdown in the second quarter, then had a 26-yard fumble return for another score in the third quarter. His first touchdown put the Tigers ahead 24-10, a turning point in the game.

Brown became the first Tiger to total two defensive scores in one game since 1954, when Walt Laraway scored on an interception return and a blocked punt against The Citadel. Laraway played both ways and on special teams in those days.

Brown was named Walter Camp Foundation National Defensive Player-of-the-Week and the national defensive performer-of-the-week by the College Football Performance Awards for his efforts against the Tar Heels.

Brown also became just the third player in the nation in the last 12 years to score on a fumble return and an interception return in the same game. Paul McClendon (Texas Tech) had a six-yard fumble return and a 50-yard interception return for a score against North Texas on September 22, 2001. Shawn Hackett (West Virginia) had a 50-yard interception return and a 10-yard fumble return for a touchdown against Rutgers on November 3, 2001. Therefore, no one had done it in almost 10 years.

Catanzaro Accurate From Long Range

Freshman placekicker Chandler Catanzaro is 20-25 (80 percent) on field goals this year. That total includes 7-10 on field goals of 40+ yards, a strong 70-percent mark that is seventh-best in Clemson history given a minimum of five attempts. That 70-percent figure is the best by a Tiger since 2001, when Aaron Hunt was 5-5.

Catanzaro was 6-9 on field goals of 40+ yards as a freshman in 2010 and is 13-19 in his career, a 68.4-percent figure that best in Clemson history for a career. Donald Igwebuike is second in school history with a 60.9-percent figure (14-23) for his career.

Overall, Catanzaro is 34-47 (.723) on field goals in his career. One of those field goals was a 43-yarder on the final play of the game against Wake Forest, a kick that gave Clemson a 31-28 victory to clinch the ACC Atlantic Division title.

Catanzaro's Perfect Day

Chandler Catanzaro was a perfect 5-5 on field goals in the win over Boston College on October 8. He connected on kicks of 38, 42, 18, 20, and 47 yards on a windy day in Death Valley.

Catanzaro is 20-25 on field goals for the year, including 7-10 on field goals of 40+ yards. In his career, he is 13-19 on field goals from 40+ yards, as the 68-percent mark is the best in Clemson history.

For his performance against Boston College, Catanzaro won the Leather Helmet Award, an honor presented by the Boston College Touchdown Club to the MVP of the Clemson vs. Boston College game. He also was named national kicker-of-the-week by the College Football Performance Awards.

Catanzaro Nails Winner to Send Tigers to Charlotte

Sophomore Chandler Catanzaro became the first Tiger in history to kick a walkoff field goal at Death Valley when he booted a 43-yard field goal on the last play of the game to give Clemson a 31-28 victory over Wake Forest on November 12. The victory culminated a comeback from a 14-point deficit and clinched the ACC Atlantic Division title.

The last time Clemson won a game on a field goal in walkoff fashion took place at South Carolina in 2007, when Mark Buchholz kicked a 35-yarder to beat South Carolina 23-21.

Catanzaro had missed a 30-yard field goal earlier in the quarter that would have given the Tigers a three-point lead. However, the Tiger defense got the ball back and gave Catanzaro another opportunity. Even after a timeout to ice him, Catanzaro made the game-winner.

Cloy Pops the Question

Graduate offensive lineman Mason Cloy made his final appearance in Memorial Stadium special. After running down the Hill prior to the Wake Forest game on November 12 for the final time. He met his girlfriend, Shannon Headley, on the Clemson sideline and proposed. He actually carried the engagement ring with him down the Hill. She had been brought to the sideline to pose for a picture with Cloy and his parents, a normal occurrence on Senior Day.

Shannon said "yes" and the moment was captured on ESPN prior to the game and shown on SportsCenter that night. It was a fitting weekend for Cloy to do it, because he is planning a career in the military and the proposal was made on Veteran's Day weekend.

Diehl Sets Tiger Games Record

Senior fullback Chad Diehl set the Clemson record for games at N.C. State on November 19. He has appeared in 56 games, including 19 as a starter, during his career that dates to the 2007 season. Diehl played in three games as a first-year freshman in 2007 before suffering an injury that ended his season.

Diehl has played in all 53 games for the Tigers since the beginning of the 2008 season, including 13 this year. He should finish with 57 after the Orange Bowl, and it will be a tough record to break.

Ford to be Inducted Into Orange Bowl Hall of Fame

Former Head Coach Danny Ford (1978-89) will be inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Fame this year. This is the 30th anniversary of Clemson's 1981 National Championship season, and Ford and the Tigers clinched the title with 22-15 win over Nebraska in the 1982 Orange Bowl. Ford will be the second Clemson person off the 1981 team to be inducted, as linebacker Jeff Davis, the defensive MVP of that game, was inducted two years ago.

Ford Facts

- Led Clemson to the 1981 National Championship at the age 33, still the youngest head coach to win the national title.
- Had a 96-29-4 record (.760) at Clemson.
- Won five conference titles (1981,82,86,87,88), second-most in Clemson history behind Frank Howard's six.
- Led Clemson to a 30-2-2 record between 1981-83, the best record in the nation during that era.
- Won 18 games over top-20 teams, still a Tiger record.
- Seven of his 11 teams finished in the top 20, including five that were ranked in the top 10.
- Coached in eight bowl games and won six, as all six were over teams ranked in the top 20. He defeated Hall of Fame Head Coaches Woody Hayes (Ohio State), Don Nehlen (West Virginia), Tom Osborne (Nebraska), Joe Paterno (Penn State), and Barry Switzer (Oklahoma) in bowl games.
- Coached 26 All-Americans and 71 First-Team All-ACC selections.
- 42 of his former players were drafted by the NFL and 11 won Super Bowl Championship rings.

Freeman a Finalist For Rimington Trophy

Center Dalton Freeman was named one of six finalists for the Dave Rimington Trophy. The honor goes to the top center in college football. Freeman, a junior, became the first Tiger center to be named a finalist since 2001 (Kyle Young). Young was also a finalist in 2000.

Freeman was the First-Team All-ACC center for this season, the first Clemson center named First-Team All-ACC since Young in 2000. Freeman has started all 13 games this year and 35 of his 39 games played over his three-year career. He has played 975 snaps this season, more than any player in school history.

A starter on two ACC Atlantic Division championship teams, Freeman is a big reason the Tigers are in the top 30 in the nation in total offense, passing offense, and scoring offense. With one game left this season, Clemson has already established a school record for total offense (5,728), passing yards (3,702), and points (437), and has the second-most touchdowns (54) in school history.

Hopkins Back-to-Back 50-Catch Seasons

Clemson's top receiver in the win over #3 Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game was sophomore DeAndre Hopkins. The Central, SC native had seven catches for 92 yards to help Clemson to 240 passing yards on the night.

Hopkins has been Clemson's second-leading receiver this year with 62 catches for 871 yards and four touchdowns. He had 157 receiving yards against North Carolina, the high figure by a Tiger this year.

Hopkins had 52 receptions last year as a first-year freshman, the second-most receptions by a freshman in Tiger history. Hopkins already has 10 more catches than he had last year. He now has 114 receptions in his first two years, the most catches in Clemson history for a player at the end of his sophomore season.

Hopkins joined Derrick Hamilton (2001-03) as the only players in ACC history with at least 50 receptions in each of his first two years.

Humphries Makes Early Start

First-year freshman Adam Humphries started at wide receiver against Troy to become just the 14th first-year freshman to start a season-opener. Sammy Watkins, also a first-year freshman, was supposed to start, but Watkins was on the field for the opening kickoff and he came on the field for the second play. Watkins then caught a 33-yard touchdown pass.

Morris Top Offensive Coordinator By Rivals.com

Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris was named the national offensive coordinator-of-the-year by Rivals.com.

Morris has taken the Tigers to school records in passing yards, total yards, and scoring offense in his first year with program, helping Clemson to a 10-3 record and an ACC Championship. Clemson has improved its total offense by over 100 yards per game over last year and has improved from 88th in the nation to 29th. Clemson has also improved from 78th to 21st in passing offense.

The Tigers have a 1,000-yard rusher (Andre Ellington) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Sammy Watkins) for just the third time in school history, and quarterback Tajh Boyd has established school marks for passing yards, touchdown passes, touchdown responsibility, and total offense.

Morris has accomplished these statistics against a schedule that has included games against five top-25 teams, including two victories over Virginia Tech, who was ranked #3 entering the ACC Championship game. That tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson has beaten in history.

No Obstacle For Price

One of the keys to Clemson's success on offense this year has been the play of left offensive tackle Philip Price. The Dillon, SC native is the first original walk-on to start on the offensive line for the Tigers since 2004, when Tommy Sharpe was the starting center. Sharpe was actually a two-year starter (2003,04) with quarterback Charlie Whitehurst.

Price was a first-team All-ACC selection by CBSSports.com and was an Honorable Mention All-ACC pick by the ACC Sports Media Association.

Below is a list of original Tiger walk-ons who have started over the course of the season in the last 30 years.

Swinney Finalist for National Awards

Head Coach Dabo Swinney is one of 10 finalists for the Bear Bryant Award, the national coach-of-the-year award presented by the American Heart Association. The award is sponsored by the Marathon Oil Corporation. The award will be announced and presented on January 19 in Houston, TX.

Swinney was also named a regional coach-of-the-year by the American Football Coaches Association.

Swinney guided Clemson to the ACC Championship this year with a 38-10 win over #3 Virginia Tech in Charlotte. The Tigers have defeated teams ranked in the top 25 four times this year, tied for second in the nation and the most in one year in Clemson history. Clemson's win over Virginia Tech tied for the highest-ranked team the Tigers have defeated in history.

The 10-3 Tigers have gained the most wins in a season in 21 years for the program, and a victory over West Virginia in the Orange Bowl would give Clemson 11 wins for the first time in 30 years.

This is the third award that Swinney has been listed as a finalist. He was also one of five finalists for the Eddie Robinson Award and one of 10 finalists for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year Award.

Swinney Leads Nation in Career APR

Head Coach Dabo Swinney is first among active coaches in terms of career APR with a 988 figure. Swinney has been the head coach of the Tigers for three full seasons and for half of the 2008 season.

The Clemson football program's APR score for the 2009-10 cohort (four-year period from 2006-07 through Rutgers has the top figure among public institutions with a 988 figure, followed by Ohio State at 985. Clemson is third at 977 and is followed by Georgia and Florida at 976.

As far as all schools that play in the FBS, Clemson is in a tie for 12th place in the nation with private schools Stanford and Vanderbilt (also at 977).

Northwestern has the top APR with a 993 figure for the time period examined. Rutgers is second at 988 and Northern Illinois is third at 987.

Thomas Scores Touchdown & Catches Pass

Offensive lineman Brandon Thomas scored a touchdown at Georgia Tech on October 29 when he recovered a Tajh Boyd fumble in the endzone. He was credited with a rushing touchdown on the play, but gets no rushing yards nor an attempt since he recovered the ball.

Thomas became the first Clemson offensive lineman to score a touchdown since 1966, when All-American guard Harry Olszewski scored when he recovered a fumble in mid-air and raced 12 yards for a score against South Carolina. Clemson won that game 35-10, giving the Tigers the ACC Championship.

Thomas also has a reception this year on a tipped pass and is the only Clemson offensive lineman in history with a rushing touchdown and a reception in the same year.

BOWL NOTES

Walker Sets Starts Record

Graduate offensive tackle Landon Walker has played more snaps than any other player (besides Kyle Young) in school history and has set the Tiger record for starts. When he started against #3 Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game, he set the school record with his 48th start. Walker, who is the son of a member of Clemson's 1981 National Championship team, has played 3,065 snaps on offense in his career.

Watkins Named ACC Rookie-of-the-Year

Wide receiver Sammy Watkins was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Year by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association. Watkins received 43 of the 45 votes in becoming Clemson's first ACC Rookie-of-the-Year since 2005 (James Davis).

Watkins has 77 receptions for 1,153 yards and 11 receiving touchdowns this year. He has set the school record for receiving yards in a season and has tied the mark for touchdown catches. Watkins leads all freshmen nationally in receptions, receiving yards, and touchdowns, and his figures are also freshman ACC records. Additionally, Watkins has totaled 173.1 all-purpose yards per game, fourth-most in the nation, first among freshmen, and most in ACC history among freshmen.

Watkins has three games of at least 150 receiving yards, already a school career record, and he has five games of at least 100 receiving yards. He has accomplished this in 12 games, as he suffered a shoulder injury early in the third quarter against Wake Forest, then missed the N.C. State game the following week.

Watkins was honored with a weekly award seven times by the ACC this year, four times as the ACC Rookie-of-the-Week and three times as ACC Receiver-of-the-Week. He was also named national freshman-of-the-week three times by Rivals.com.

The Fort Myers, FL native had 345 all-purpose yards at Maryland, the fourth-most all-purpose yards in ACC history and the most in Clemson history. He also had a 284-yard game against Georgia Tech. Watkins has scored 12 touchdowns overall and needs just one to break C.J. Spiller's Clemson freshman record of 12 set in 2006.

Watkins was named First-Team All-ACC, the first Tiger first-year freshman to earn First-Team All-ACC honors since Anthony Simmons (LB) in 1995.

Watkins is Clemson's sixth ACC Rookie-of-the-Year and the first since running back James Davis in 2005. He is the fifth wide receiver to earn the distinction and the first since Georgia Tech's Calvin Johnson in 2004.

Watkins Reaching Rare Heights

Sammy Watkins had five catches for 62 yards while playing just over two quarters in the win over Wake Forest on November 12. In the process, he became just the fourth Tiger in history to go over 1,000 receiving yards in a season. He has 1,153 on 77 receptions in 2011, as the 1,153 yards are most in school history.

Watkins had 197 all-purpose yards against Wake Forest and has 2,077 all-purpose yards in 2011, an average of 173.1 yards per game. His yardage total is already second-most in Clemson history. He is just the second Tiger with at least 2,000 all-purpose yards in a season. C.J. Spiller has the record with 2,680 all-purpose yards in 2009.

Watkins Sets Career Record

One of the most telling statistics on the impact of freshman Sammy Watkins has been his ability to have high receiving yardage games. In just 12 games, Watkins already has a school-record three games of 150+ receiving yards. Aaron Kelly and Perry Tuttle had the previous record with two apiece.

Watkins had 10 catches for 155 yards in the victory over #19 Auburn. In the win over Boston College, he added seven catches for 152 yards. He then had nine catches for 153 yards at Georgia Tech.

Watkins has seven of the top-15, single-game freshman reception bests in Tiger history, including his freshman record 10 catches against Auburn in his third career game.

Watkins' All-Purpose Total in Top Five in ACC History

Freshman wide receiver Sammy Watkins has 2,077 all-purpose yards this year, fourth-most in ACC history and most among league freshmen. David Wilson (Virginia Tech) has an ACC-high 2,129 all-purpose yards.

Watkins has already broken the ACC record for all-purpose yards by a freshman in a season. Ryan Williams (Virginia Tech) had 1,835 yards all-purpose yards in 14 games in 2009. Watkins had a school-record 345 all-purpose yards at Maryland on October 15, as that was fourth-most in ACC history.

Watkins Sets All-Purpose Record at Maryland

Freshman Sammy Watkins was named one of two Paul Hornung Award Players-of-the-Week for his performance in Clemson's 56-45 win at Maryland. The Hornung Award, presented by Texas Roadhouse, is awarded annually to the nation's most versatile player.

Watkins had a school-record 345 all-purpose yards in the game. He had eight receptions for 105 yards and two touchdowns and five kickoff returns for 207 yards and another touchdown. He also had a 33-yard carry. The 345 all-purpose yards broke C.J. Spiller's Tiger record of 312, set against Florida State in 2009, and is the fourth-highest figure in ACC history.

Watkins had three total touchdowns at Maryland, the two receiving touchdowns and an 89-yard kickoff return for a score. The three touchdowns tied the Clemson freshman record set by Ronald Williams against Appalachian State in 1990. Watkins' 207 kickoff return yards were the second-most in Clemson history. Justin Miller had a then-NCAA record 282 kickoff return yards and two touchdowns at Florida State in 2004.

Watkins also became just the second player in the nation in the last 12 years to total at least 200 kickoff return yards, 100 receiving yards, and three touchdowns in one game. The other was Eric Page (Toledo), who did it in 2010.

AS A FIRST-YEAR FRESHMAN, SAMMY WATKINS HAS TOTALED 77 RECEPTIONS FOR A SCHOOL-RECORD 1,153 YARDS.

Zimmerman a Finalist For Two Major Awards

Punter Dawson Zimmerman was a finalist for two major awards in 2011. He was one of 10 finalists for the Lowe's Senior Class Award, an honor that takes into account community service, classroom accomplishment, character, and excellence in competition. It is presented by the NCAA and sponsored by Lowe's.

The Wuerffel Trophy is presented by the All-Sports Association of Florida and is named after former Florida quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner Danny Wuerffel. It is an award that combines exemplary community service, outstanding academic achievement, and athletic achievement. Zimmerman was one of 13 finalists for that honor. He was also one of four student-athletes in the top 10 for both awards.

In 2011, Zimmerman is averaging 42.0 yards per punt and has averaged at least 40 yards per punt in nine games. He has 18 punts inside the 20 and has nine punts of 50+ yards. Zimmerman is second in Tiger history in net punting average and sixth in gross punting average. He has a 3.93 career GPA in English and is very active in community service activities with the football team and on his own.

Head coach DABO SWINNEY

At 42, Dabo Swinney is the youngest head coach in the ACC and one of the youngest in the country. However, his resumé is already stuffed with many significant accomplishments on a school, ACC, and national level.

First, his mere appointment to the position was significant. In October of 2008, he was named Clemson interim head coach, replacing Tommy Bowden, who had been his position coach as a player at Alabama and been Clemson's head coach since 1999. He led the Tigers to a 4-2 record over the remainder of the regular season, including a victory over Steve Spurrier's South Carolina Gamecocks in the regular-season finale. That strong finish led to a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska.

On December 1, 2008, the interim tag was removed from the title and he was named the program's head coach. At the time, there had been 28 interim head coaches at the FBS level since 1970 and those coaches had combined for a record of 26-86-2. Only one of those 28 interim coaches posted a winning record, and that was Swinney. When he was hired as the head coach, Swinney became just the second interim coach to be elevated to the head coach position at the same school during that time period.

In four years (three full seasons) as the Tigers' head coach, Swinney has directed Clemson to a 29-18 overall record (.617) and a 19-10 record (.655) in ACC regular-season games. He has also led the Tigers to the ACC Championship game twice, won one ACC title, and has twice been named a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year award.

In addition to leading the program to four bowl games on the field in his young career, his players have also excelled in the classroom. In his career as a head coach, his players have an APR score of 988, best among active FBS coaches.

His 2011 squad captured Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 when it defeated #3 Virginia Tech 38-10 in the ACC Championship game in Charlotte, NC. It tied for the highest-ranked team the Tigers defeated in history and was the most points scored by an ACC team against Virginia Tech since it joined the league in 2004. The victory, the Tigers' second over the Hokies in 2011, also gave Clemson its first 10-win season since 1990 and upped the Tigers' record against top-25 ranked teams to 4-1. The four wins over top-25 ranked teams established a Tiger record.

The Tigers jumped out to an 8-0 record and a #6 national ranking after being unranked in the preseason. Games 3-5 marked a tough stretch, as Clemson hosted #19 Auburn, who entered with a national-best 17-game winning streak, and #11 Florida State along with a road game at #10 Virginia Tech. The Tigers were victorious in all three contests by scores of 38-24, 35-30, and 23-3, respectively, marking the first time in history that an ACC team won three consecutive games over top-25 ranked (AP) teams. Clemson also held Virginia Tech without a touchdown for the first time in a game at Blacksburg since 1995.

Swinney, who was one of five finalists for the Eddie Robinson National Coach-of-the-Year award, one of 10 finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach-of-the-Year award, and one of 10 finalists for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year award in 2011, led the Tigers to their first Orange Bowl berth since 1981 with the help of five First-Team All-ACC players. Dwayne Allen (TE), Tajh Boyd (QB), Andre Branch (DE), Dalton Freeman (C), and Sammy Watkins (WR) all earned first-team honors, while Andre Ellington (RB), Chandler Catanzaro (PK), and Brandon Thompson (DT) earned second-team honors. Watkins was also Second-Team All-ACC as a specialist.

Allen received the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end and has totaled 48 receptions for 577 yards and eight touchdowns. Boyd has set the school record for total yards (3,764), passing yards (3,578), and passing touchdowns (31). Branch, a finalist for the Ted Hendricks Award, has an ACC-best 16 tackles for loss and an ACC-high 10.5 sacks, including tying school-records for tackles for loss (6) and sacks (4) in Clemson's win at #10 Virginia Tech. Freeman is a finalist for the Rimington Trophy.

Watkins has been one of the most dynamic freshmen in the nation. The ACC Rookie-of-the-Year has totaled 77 receptions for 1,153 yards and 11 touchdowns along with a 26.3-yard average and one touchdown on kickoff returns despite missing one game due to injury. Watkins has teamed up with Andre Ellington to give Clemson a 1,000-yard receiver and 1,000-yard rusher, as Ellington has 1,062 rushing yards and 10 rushing touchdowns. Watkins was also an AP First-Team All-American, just the third in college football history as a first-year freshman.

Swinney became just the second Tiger coach to lead Clemson's program into a bowl game in his first two full years as head coach, joining his predecessor, Bowden. The 2010 schedule was one of the most challenging in school history, as nine bowl teams were on the regular-season slate and two of the four non-conference opponents were ranked in the top 25 when they played the Tigers, just the second time in 21 years the Tigers faced two top-25 non-conference opponents in the regular season.

The 2010 season included wins over bowl teams Georgia Tech, Maryland, and N.C. State. The Wolfpack were ranked #23 in the nation and were leading the ACC in scoring. But the Clemson defense held N.C. State to just one touchdown and 13 points. The team excelled defensively in 2010 and was 13th in the nation in scoring defense and in the top 25 in both total defense and pass defense.

C.J. Spiller was a unanimous first-team All-American in Swinney's first year, and defensive end Da'Quan Bowers duplicated the feat on the defensive side of the ball. Bowers won the 2010 Bronko Nagurski Award as the nation's top defensive player, and he received the Ted Hendricks Award as the top defensive end. He was also a finalist for the Bednarik Award and Lombardi Award. He led the nation in sacks (15.5) and was tied for the national lead in tackles for loss (26).

Bowers was one of four First-Team All-ACC players in 2010, as he joined Jarvis Jenkins (DT) and DeAndre McDaniel (S) on defense and Chris Hairston (OT) on offense. Clemson and Maryland tied for the most first-team selections.

In 2009, Swinney's first full year as head coach, he led the Tigers to their first championship of the ACC's Atlantic Division. The Tigers came just six points short of winning their first ACC title in 18 years. Swinney was named ACC Coach-of-the-Year by Sporting News and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year award.

Swinney accumulated nine wins, second-most among all FBS coaches in their first full year behind Oregon's Chip Kelly. The nine wins tied for fourth-most in ACC history for a first-year head coach. He also led the Tigers to their first bowl win since 2005 in the 21-13 victory over Kentucky in the Music City Bowl.

The Tigers reached the nine-win mark playing a schedule that included four games against top-15 opponents, just the second year in school history (1999 was the other) that Clemson played four games against teams ranked in the top 15 of the AP poll. The Tigers' three FBS non-conference opponents had a combined record of 29-10 in 2009. Clemson gave TCU one of its stiffest tests in a 14-10 Horned Frog victory on September 26.

Swinney's first season included a six-game winning streak, a streak that saw the Tigers score at least 34 points in every game, a first in school history. During that stretch, the Tigers defeated #8 Miami (FL) on the road. The 40-37 overtime victory tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson has defeated on the road in school history.

That was the second of six straight wins, the longest winning streak for the Clemson program in four years. The streak also included a 40-24 nationally-televised win over Florida State and Bobby Bowden, the Hall of Fame coach who is second in victories in FBS history. The winning streak brought Clemson to a #15 national ranking in the AP poll after the ACC Atlantic Division clinching victory over Virginia on November 21.

The Tigers had success on offense, defense, and special teams during the 2009 season. They were 28th in the nation and third in the ACC in scoring offense (31.1), while the defense was 20th in total defense (314.3) and seventh in pass defense (162.8). Clemson finished in a tie for fifth in the country in interceptions (21) as well.

Clemson added a school-record six kick returns for touchdowns in 2009, four on kickoff returns and two on punt returns.

The main reason Clemson was so outstanding on special teams was the play of college football's most dynamic player (Spiller) in 2009. The running back was named MVP of the ACC in 2009 and was a consensus first-team All-American. He had five kick returns for touchdowns during the 2009 season, an all-time Clemson record, and established the NCAA record for kickoff returns for touchdowns in a career with seven. He was also the only FBS player to score at least one touchdown in every game in 2009.

Record as a head coach:	29-18 (.617)
Record at Clemson:	72-43 (.626)

Overall, the Tigers held down three positions on the All-ACC First-Team and five spots on the second team. Only Virginia Tech had more representatives.

Swinney became Clemson's interim head coach on October 13, 2008 when Tommy Bowden stepped down. Then on December 1, 2008, the "interim" tag was removed, as he took over on a full-time basis as the Tigers' 25th head coach. He had been Clemson's assistant head coach for two years and had been in charge of the wide receivers since 2003.

Swinney took over a 3-3 team and led it to a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska. He guided Clemson to a 4-1 record over the last five games of the regular season, with the only loss at #24 Florida State. That 4-1 record to end the regular season tied for the best mark in the ACC for that time period. Four of his six regular-season opponents were later bowl participants.

Swinney hit the ground running in his first week as interim head coach, as he prepared for a 5-1 Georgia Tech team. He had to re-organize his staff, and regroup his team and Clemson Nation in just five days. While the Tigers lost by four points, he accomplished many goals in that first week through his outstanding leadership. One of the most impressive demonstrations of unity came during the team's "Tiger Walk."

HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY

Prior to the game against the Yellow Jackets, Swinney decided to have his team depart buses outside the Lot 5 parking lot near the WestZone at Memorial Stadium and experience the gameday atmosphere. Dressed in jackets and ties, the team was embraced by thousands of Tiger fans who stood 10 deep for the 200-yard march to the stadium. It was the centerpiece of his "All In" theme in his first week as head coach. It is a tradition that has continued.

In his second week as head coach, an off-week, he invited the Clemson student body to a practice, and nearly 1,000 students showed up. He spoke to the group and actually allowed some students to participate during practice, as they were selected to attempt a field goal, punt against a live rush, and field a punt. He also took the entire team to the Greenville Children's Hospital for a visit with young men and women fighting cancer.

He has continued his community involvement through his foundation. His foundation made the first contribution to the cancer fund established for former Boston College linebacker Mark Herzlich. Many schools followed his lead the remainder of the season.

The Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year award evaluates coaching performances in terms of coaching excellence, sportsmanship, integrity, academic excellence, and community commitment. It is easy to see why Swinney was a national finalist for that award in his first full season as head coach in 2009, and again in 2011.

The 1993 Alabama graduate joined the Clemson staff prior to the 2003 season. In his first eight years as an assistant or head coach, the Tigers have finished in the top 25 of the final polls four times and totaled 15 wins over top-25 teams, including victories over Florida State (5), Miami (FL) (2), Virginia Tech (2), Auburn (1), and Tennessee (1), during his tenure in Tigertown.

Swinney coached his wide receiver position to a level of consistency that had not been seen previously at Clemson. He had a wideout finish first or second in the ACC in catches in five of his six years as an assistant. In his first year, he had three of the top-10 receivers in the ACC, a first in Tiger history. He has coached a First or Second-Team All-ACC wideout (Derrick Hamilton, Aïrese Currie, Chansi Stuckey, Aaron Kelly, Jacoby Ford, Watkins) in eight of his nine seasons at Clemson, also an unprecedented feat at Clemson.

In 2004 and 2005, he coached the ACC reception champion (Currie (2004), Stuckey (2005)). It was the first time Clemson had two different players lead the ACC in receptions in consecutive years. In 2007, Kelly led the ACC in yards, giving Swinney an ACC receiving king three out of four years. Stuckey earned First-Team All-ACC honors in back-to-back years, a first for a Tiger wideout in 25 years.

The play of Swinney's wide receivers was a big reason Clemson led the ACC in total offense, rushing offense, and scoring offense during the 2006 season, just the second time an ACC team led the conference in all three categories during the previous 25 seasons.

The Tigers also led the league and set school records for yards per play (6.5) and touchdowns (55).

In 2007, Swinney coached Kelly, a First-Team All-ACC selection who led the league in receiving yards per game and touchdown catches (11). He also finished second in receptions per game with a school-record 88 catches, tied for the second-highest total in ACC history. His 11 touchdown catches were a Tiger record as well.

Kelly is Clemson's and the ACC's career reception leader with 232 catches. He also owns the school touchdown reception record with 20. The previous record of 18 was held by Glenn Smith, who established the record in 1951.

The Alabama native has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the nation. In 2006, he was listed as the #5 recruiter in the nation by Rivals.com. It marked the second straight year that he was lauded by the website as a top-25 national recruiter. He signed 38 players in his five recruiting seasons as an assistant coach and was a major reason Clemson's 2008 recruiting class was rated #2 in the nation by ESPN.com when he signed 11 players. He was named one of the top-25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com in 2007 as well.

When Swinney accepted the interim head coaching position on October 13, 2008, he described his feelings as "bittersweet" because he was taking over for Bowden, who had been his first position coach at Alabama in 1989. He had also brought Swinney back to the coaching profession in 2003 and has had a profound effect on his life. Both had followed similar paths as players, as Bowden was a walk-on at West Virginia and Swinney was a walk-on at Alabama.

Swinney received a commerce & business administration degree from Alabama in 1993 after lettering three times (1990-92). A walk-on who went on to earn a scholarship, Swinney was a wide receiver on Alabama's 1992 National Championship team. He was also named Academic All-SEC along with being an SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member in 1990 and 1992.

Along with his appearance in the 1993 Sugar Bowl, his Alabama teams played in the 1990 Sugar Bowl, 1991 Fiesta Bowl, and 1991 Blockbuster Bowl. Both Sugar Bowl appearances came after winning the SEC title game.

After his playing career, Swinney served as a graduate assistant from 1993-95 at Alabama, where he coached in the 1994 Gator Bowl and 1995 Citrus Bowl. In December of 1995, he received a master's degree in business administration from Alabama.

He became a full-time assistant coach at Alabama in February of 1996 under Head Coach Gene Stallings (now in the Hall of Fame) and coached a total of five seasons there on a full-time basis. He was assigned to coach the Crimson Tide's wide receivers and tight ends in 1996, a season that saw Alabama win the SEC Western Division title and make an Outback Bowl appearance. The following year, he solely coached the tight ends under Head Coach Mike DuBoise.

In 1998, he coached Alabama's wide receivers, a position he held for three seasons. At the end of the 1999 campaign, Swinney coached the Crimson Tide in the 2000 Orange Bowl after winning the SEC Championship game. Wide receiver Freddie Milons was the game MVP.

During his time at Alabama, Swinney was a part of six teams with at least 10 wins, five top-10 finishes, one na-

spirit

president
JAMES F. BARKER

Jim Barker has worn almost every hat possible in his almost five decades as a member of the Clemson family - student, athlete, alumnus, teacher, dean, parent, fan, and president. On reflection, he thinks "student" is the most important.

"I often tell people I learned everything from plumbing to poetry in architecture school, and I use every bit of that knowledge as president of Clemson University," said Barker.

A 1970 Clemson graduate, Barker was named president in 1999 with a mandate from the Board of Trustees to lead Clemson into the top ranks of American universities. At his inaugural address in April of 2000, he said, "I am convinced that there is no university in America stronger than Clemson when we are 'One Clemson.' A united Clemson is unstoppable."

During the "One Clemson" decade that followed, the university harnessed the competitive, determined spirit of the Clemson family to transform itself from a respected state institution into one of the nation's finest public universities.

Clemson climbed from the third tier to a top-25 ranking among public universities in the 2011 U.S. News & World Report guide to colleges, and it has been recognized for value, affordability, and return on investment by Kiplinger's and Bloomberg/Businessweek magazines. Ninety-two percent of seniors would choose Clemson again according to the National Survey of Student Engagement. Also, Clemson is third among all public universities in the percentage of alumni who make gifts to their school. That is another indication of quality and alumni satisfaction.

Clemson continues to attract top students and faculty. It is the #1 choice of Palmetto Fellows, the state's best students. A record-setting 16,867 undergraduate and 6,082 graduate school applications were received for the fall of 2010, and just over 50 percent of the freshman class graduated in the top-10 percent of their high school classes.

The University provides an unmatched educational experience - intellectual development - for students and research-driven economic development for the state of South Carolina.

Barker is a leading voice in higher education for South Carolina and the nation. He served on the NCAA Division I Board of Directors for four years, three of which as chair. He also delivered a keynote address at the Society for College & University Planning conference in Charleston, SC in October of 2010.

For his leadership, Barker has received the Order of the Palmetto, South Carolina's highest civilian honor, and The Cliff's Business Person-of-the-Year Award from Green-

2010-11 UNIVERSITY HIGHLIGHTS

- The Kickoff of the $600 million Will to Lead campaign at the start of the fall semester, along with news that the $500 million mark had been reached by June 1, 2011. Campaign gifts support students, faculty, and facilities, including new athletic facilities.
- Progress on construction of the $31 million Lee Hall expansion and renovation, and the restart of construction on the Academic Success Center and a new Life Sciences building. Both of these projects had broken ground but were delayed temporarily by the fiscal crisis and recession.
- Groundbreaking and the awarding of construction contracts for a new wind energy test facility at the Clemson University Restoration Institute in North Charleston, SC.
- The adoption of a new Clemson 2020 strategic plan, developed after a year of intense study and deliberation. After two years of dealing with budget cuts, Barker said, "It's time for Clemson to get back on offense."

ville Magazine. Barker has also been awarded honorary doctorate degrees from the Medical University of South Carolina, South Carolina State University, and Mars Hill College.

A native of Kingsport, TN, Barker received his bachelor of arts degree from Clemson University in 1970 and his master of architecture & urban design degree in 1973 from Washington University in Saint Louis, MO, which also recognized him with its Distinguished Alumnus Award. He is also a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects and the Institute for Urban Design.

As Clemson's President, Barker remains committed to the classroom. Each spring, he is a part of a team that teaches an undergraduate course exploring "a sense of place" in architecture, literature, and history.

In his spare time, he maintains the daily fitness regimen of a life-long athlete and enjoys playing with his granddaughters. He is widely acclaimed for his pen-and-ink drawings of campus buildings and his watercolor paintings.

Barker and his wife, Marcia, have two sons, Britt and Jacob, a daughter-in-law, Rita Bolt Barker, and two grandchildren.

Athletic Director TERRY DON PHILLIPS

When the Clemson baseball squad played host to the 2011 NCAA Tournament, it meant the Tiger sports program had accomplished something only one other program had done nationally. It marked the third consecutive year Clemson had been to a bowl game, the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, and the NCAA Baseball Tourney. Only Florida State has equaled that accomplishment.

Reaching a high level of success in the high-profile sports is a credit to the administrative acumen of Clemson Athletic Director Dr. Terry Don Phillips. Now in his 10th year at Clemson, Phillips has enhanced the Tiger program on many levels.

The 2010-11 season marked the fourth straight year the men's basketball program reached the NCAA Tournament, a first in the 100-year history of that program. The Tiger football team has been bowl eligible each of Phillips' nine previous years and has had four top-25 final rankings. The baseball program has been to the NCAA Tournament eight of his nine years and has been to the College World Series twice.

In addition to the success of the high-profile sports in 2010-11, the women's track & field program won the ACC title both indoor and outdoor, the second straight year they accomplished that feat, and finished in the top 20 at both national meets. The men and the women both finished in the top 25 at the indoor meet.

The rowing program had its third straight top-15 finish and the women's tennis team made its ninth straight NCAA Tournament appearance. Overall, seven teams finished in the top 25 in the nation.

In his nine years at Clemson, it has had 53 teams finish the season in the top 25, including the golf team that won the 2003 national title. Five different women's sports have captured ACC titles during his tenure. Only Virginia has had a wider variety of women's sports win league titles.

The 2010-11 academic year was also a year of great accomplishment on an individual basis. Track athletes Patricia Mamona (triple jump), Miller Moss (heptathlon), and Brianna Rollins (60m hurdles) won national titles. Golfer Corbin Mills won the U.S. Public Links National Championship. Women's tennis players Josipa Bek and Keri Wong reached the finals of the NCAA Doubles Championship, a first in Clemson's storied program. Da'Quan Bowers won the Bronko Nagurski Award as the top defensive player in college football.

One of the reasons for Clemson's level of success as a total sports program has been his emphasis on improving facilities. On June 30, 2009, the football staff moved into the WestZone at Memorial Stadium. It was a day that brought a smile to everyone associated with the program, but especially Phillips, who had been working toward that day before he arrived in 2002.

Phillips' vision for the WestZone was to create a top-of-the-line facility for the football program, but at the same time have a positive effect on the total sports program. The facility at Memorial Stadium now creates more office space, new locker rooms, and training room and strength training facilities for the Olympic sports programs.

In the 2011 spring semester, nearly 50 percent of student-athletes were on the academic honor roll and seven of the 15 programs had team GPAs of at least 3.0.

All 19 Clemson teams posted APR scores of at least 945 and 13 of the 19 were over 975. The football program had a 977 APR score for the 2009-10 data, a cohort of four years that ends with the student-athletes who were on the team for the 2009-10 academic year. Clemson was 11th out of all FBS programs in terms of APR score.

Phillips has been recognized for these accomplishments in recent years. He was named as one of the 100 Most Influential Sports Educators in America in 2008 by The Institute for International Sport at Rhode Island.

Phillips was also recognized nationally for his performance at Clemson in 2006 when he was honored by NACDA (National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics) as the 2005-06 GeneralSports Turf Systems Athletic Director-of-the-Year for the FBS Southeast Region. He was one of just four FBS athletic directors honored at the annual convention in New Orleans, LA.

Excellence in academics has been a lifelong pursuit. He has an undergraduate degree from Arkansas (1970), a master's degree from Virginia Tech (1974), a doctorate degree from Virginia Tech (1978), and a law degree from the University of Arkansas School of Law (1996). He is a member of the Arkansas Bar, South Carolina Bar, American Bar Association, and Sports Lawyers Association.

Phillips maintains a classroom presence by teaching a sports law section in Clemson's accountancy & legal studies department. In addition, he is past chair of the NCAA Division I Infractions Appeals Committee and continues to serve the committee as requested.

Prior to coming to Clemson, he served as athletic director at Oklahoma State. Football was transformed from a perennial losing status to very competitive, enjoying a return to bowl games after several years and establishing a winning record against in-state rival Oklahoma. For this, he received the National Football Foundation Oklahoma Chapter Outstanding Contribution to Amateur Football Award in 2002.

Before leading the Cowboys, he was a senior associate athletic director at Arkansas (1988-94). He also served as athletic director at Liberty (1980,81) and Louisiana-Lafayette (1983-88). He was an assistant athletic director at Missouri (1981-83) and began his administrative career as an assistant athletic director at Florida (1979).

Phillips began his career in college athletics coaching football. He started as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1970 and 1971. He moved on to Virginia Tech as an assistant coach (1971-78) before joining the ranks of athletic administration. At Virginia Tech, he served on coaching staffs that included future Clemson Head Coaches Charley Pell and Danny Ford.

Winning has been on Phillips' resumé since his playing days at Arkansas. He lettered on three Frank Broyles teams, where he and his brother, Loyd, an Outland Trophy winner, were starting defensive tackles, the first brother combination to start together under Broyles. Arkansas had a 27-5 record in the three years, played in two Sugar Bowl games, and he played in the memorable 1969 National Championship game against Texas, a contest that continues to be featured on ESPN Classic.

In 2010, he joined Loyd in the University of Arkansas Hall of Honor.

Phillips has two children, John Dennis and Sarah-Jane, and three stepchildren, Meagan (a Clemson graduate and former member of Tiger Band), Marshall, and Madison. His wife, Tricia, is a graduate of the University of Missouri School of Journalism and earlier enjoyed a career in athletics and development. She is currently active in the Clemson and Seneca communities.

2010: Had six special teams tackles, all on kickoff coverage...kicked an extra point against Presbyterian College...had 64 kickoffs and opponents failed to get past the 20 on 19 kickoffs...a big reason Clemson had a 4.4-yard advantage on the ending spot of kickoff returns; the opponents' average start was the 25...had three touchbacks and 12 other kickoffs that reached the goal line.

2009: Handled kickoff duties for the Tigers...had seven touchbacks and 12 others that reached the goal line in 87 kickoffs as a first-year performer...handled every kickoff for the Tigers in 2009, more than any other kicker in Clemson history...held opponents inside the 21-yard line on kickoffs 31 times over the course of the season, 36 percent of his attempts...starting placekicker in one game, the win at N.C. State...scored six points; he made one field goal in one attempt and was 3-5 on extra points...had seven points for the season...his only field goal attempt was made from 28 yards in Raleigh...a big reason Clemson was third in the ACC in kickoff coverage...had nine special teams tackles on kickoff coverage, not only a single-season record, but the career record.

2008: Red-shirted...enrolled in January.

Before Clemson: Enrolled at Clemson in January of 2008 following his high school graduation in December of 2007...#16 placekicker in the nation by Rivals.com...#25 prospect in South Carolina according to SuperPrep...converted 22-37 field goals and 99-113 extra points in three seasons at Myrtle Beach High School, with a career-long of 49 yards...also was a punter and wide receiver...had 410 receiving yards and four touchdowns as a senior...two-time all-region and all-state selection...two-time "Toast of the Coast" selection...WNBA All-Zone team selection...WBTW All-Blitz team member...Shreve Bowl selection...coached by Scott Earley...recruited by Dabo Swinney...chose Clemson over Duke, Georgia Tech, Notre Dame, South Carolina, and Virginia.

Personal: Two-time member of the ACC Academic Honor Roll...majoring in sociology...born Dec. 20, 1989.

19

Clemson

43

September 3, 2011 • Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

He may have just started his third full season as Clemson's head coach, but Dabo Swinney knows how precious each victory can be. That is why the Tigers' 43-19 win over Troy was an "A" in his mind, despite his offense's first-half struggles, which led to a three-point deficit at halftime.

"We won...that's all that matters," said Swinney. "The rest of it...that's our job to coach and evaluate. I have never graded a win anything less than an 'A'. They are too hard to get. It has been a long offseason, so I'm just glad to have a 'W'."

The Tigers got the win after outscoring Troy 30-3 in the second half. Trailing 16-13 at halftime, Clemson came out and scored on three straight possessions to grab a 33-19 lead. From there, the Tigers cruised, as they amassed 347 of their 468 total yards in the second half.

Tajh Boyd, who struggled in the first 30 minutes, bounced back by passing for 199 yards and two touchdowns while completing 14-18 passes in the second half. At one point, he completed 13 straight passes. His second-half touchdowns went to tight end Dwayne Allen for 54 yards and wide receiver Jaron Brown for seven yards.

Clemson also got a 75-yard touchdown run from freshman Mike Bellamy and a one-yard plunge from freshman D.J. Howard in the fourth quarter.

"I thought there would be some jitters," said Clemson Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris. "We played a lot of young guys and there was some inconsistency with them, with Tajh and with all of them."

"They didn't let up at all, though. It was just a fact they had not been together, it was their first game, new offensive coordinator and the whole bit. We could not get in a rhythm in the first half. I could not get in rhythm as a play-caller and they couldn't get in rhythm as players."

"I told the guys in the locker room that, 'we are alright. This thing is going to take off. We are going to hit a couple of big plays and we are going to get going.' That was encouraging."

That big play came on third down midway through the third quarter. On third-and-seven from his own 46, Boyd spotted Allen all alone down the right sideline. After making an over-the-shoulder catch near the Troy 40, Allen broke two would-be tackles on his way to the endzone.

"Dwayne Allen, I thought, was the spark," stated Swinney. "That was a huge catch and run. Last year, he would have been tackled on that play. But to see him finish like he did (today) proves that he has worked on his game."

Allen's touchdown gave the Tigers a 20-16 lead. Now settled in, Boyd extended the lead to 26-16 with 0:30 left in the third quarter on his seven-yard touchdown pass to Jaron Brown.

After Troy kicked a 20-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter, Bellamy put his name in the recordbook with a 75-yard touchdown on his first career carry. That was the longest run on the first carry by a Tiger in history.

Chandler Catanzaro followed with his third field goal of 45+ yards and Howard added a one-yard touchdown run to close out the scoring. Catanzaro became just the second player in school history to boot three field goals of at least 45 yards in one game.

Additionally, Sammy Watkins set a record for receptions (7) and receiving yards (81) by a freshman in his first game. He scored just 26 seconds into the contest, the earliest score by a first-year player in school history.

IN HIS FIRST CAREER START, TAJH BOYD HAD A STELLAR SECOND HALF TO LEAD THE TIGERS TO VICTORY OVER THE TROJANS.

"It wasn't a perfect day, but it was a great win," added Swinney. "I'm really proud of the guys for handling some adversity. That was a big ol' elephant on everyone's back during halftime. We were down three points, but I'm really proud of those guys."

"There was no panic. The staff did a good job. We just needed to settle down."

Tajh Boyd said he never really worried about losing Saturday's game, because he knew there was enough talent on the field for his Tigers to get the job done.

Though he was not worried, no one could blame the Clemson quarterback if he was a little nervous as he called for the ball on third-and-13 from his own 39, clinging to a one-point lead over the underdog Wofford Terriers. However, Boyd showed a lot of poise in a pressure situation, as he stood tall in the pocket and delivered a perfectly-thrown ball to DeAndre Hopkins along the sideline.

Hopkins corralled the pass for 13 yards to the Wofford 48, keying an eight-play, 58-yard drive that helped clinch the Tigers' 35-27 victory in Death Valley.

It was a play that the young quarterback missed earlier in the game. It was a play that showed his progression through his first two starts.

"That was a critical throw in a clutch situation," said Clemson Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris. "We had to have it or we were going to have to punt the ball back to them."

Clemson needed it and every bit more after the Terriers used their unorthodox offense to push the game to the brink in a contest many thought would be an easy victory for the Tigers.

"Wofford fought as hard as I thought they would and they were everything that I thought they would be," admitted Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney.

The Terriers scored on two of their first three possessions, a 27-yard touchdown run by quarterback Mitch Allen and a 66-yard scoring pass from Allen to Brenton Bersin. Wofford led most of the first half and was within one point (28-27) heading into the fourth quarter.

Wofford ended the game with 399 total yards, including 272 yards on the ground. The Tigers topped Wofford's output with 476 yards, including 261 through the air.

"We weren't worried, because Coach Morris has been talking about matching points since he got here," said Boyd, who completed 18-29 passes for 261 yards and three touchdowns. "Coach (Morris) told us when he was at Tulsa, they had to score at least 40 points a game to match people, so we have the same mentality here.

"We are a team. Sometimes the defense helps us out, so sometimes we have to score as many points as we can so we can help them out."

Clemson got those points thanks to a 42-yard Boyd-to-Martavis Bryant pass, a 74-yard Andre Ellington touchdown run, a 38-yard touchdown pass from Boyd to Sammy Watkins, a five-yard touchdown run by Boyd, and a 17-yard touchdown pass from Boyd to Hopkins. Watkins, who had a game-high 196 all-purpose yards, was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Week for his efforts.

And when Clemson needed it the most, it was usually one of the veterans or more experienced players who came through. The Tigers got big plays from tight end Dwayne Allen, wide receiver Jaron Brown, defensive end Andre Branch, defensive tackle Brandon Thompson, Ellington, and Hopkins.

"What a great play Branch made on the wheel-route," stated Swinney. "That was a big-time play. He is a big ol' boy to be running down the sideline and then have a great play on the ball. That was a great play.

"We had some key veterans step up. Jaron (Brown) had a great camp and has continued to have two very strong games for us. DeAndre (Hopkins) is just a sophomore, but we call him a veteran, and Jaron's an old guy, so we are a little work in progress as I said when we started the season. We will have to play our way into being the type of team I think we are capable of being."

That's exactly what Boyd proved when he stepped up and fired that 13-yard completion to Hopkins.

Dabo Swinney understands the kind of pressure that comes with a long winning streak. He was a part of one himself when he was a player and coach at Alabama in the 1990s.

But, do not think for a second Swinney was feeling sorry for #19 Auburn after his Tigers snapped the SEC Tigers' 17-game winning streak with a 38-24 victory in Death Valley.

"I know how hard that is to do," said Swinney. "They were a very good champion, but I'm glad it ended in Death Valley."

The nation's longest winning streak ended thanks to a 386-yard, four-touchdown afternoon from Clemson quarterback Tajh Boyd and 155 receiving yards from freshman-sensation Sammy Watkins, who was named ACC Receiver-of-the-Week and ACC Rookie-of-the-Week for his efforts. In all, the Tigers amassed 624 yards while outscoring Auburn 31-3 from the midway part of the second quarter on.

"We had a hard time running the football early and they challenged us on some things, but we believed we had some matchups we could win in the passing game," stated Swinney. "Once we got that going, we got it rolling."

Trailing by 14 points on two different occasions, including 21-7 following Michael Dyer's second touchdown of the game in the second quarter, Boyd got Clemson rolling with a four-yard touchdown pass to DeAndre Hopkins, a six-yard score to tight end Dwayne Allen, who tight-roped the back of the endzone, and then 65 and 19-yard touchdown passes to Watkins in the third quarter.

"What can you say?...Tajh has taken ownership," said Swinney. "Chad (Morris) has done an incredible job with not only our offense, but Tajh in particular. His 386 yards were the second-most in school history."

Auburn had no answer for Boyd, as he completed 30-42 passes on his way to earning ACC Offensive Back-of-the-Week honors.

"Tajh is getting better and better," said Clemson Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris. "He keeps maturing right in front of us. From week-one to week-two, he got so much better. From week-two to week-three, he got so much better."

"He has been so smart with the football. He knew when to throw the ball and when to pull it down and run it. I see him getting better and better as he goes."

Once Boyd found his rhythm, Clemson did not miss a step, as it scored on six of seven possessions. The Tigers' 624 yards of total offense were third-most in history and just the eighth time a Clemson team topped the 600-yard mark in a contest.

"I'm really proud of our guys," stated Swinney. "That is the first time we have beaten Auburn in 60 years."

Clemson, including last year's dramatic 27-24 overtime victory at Auburn. However, there were no dramatics in front of the sellout crowd, as Clemson controlled the game in the second half.

Some thanks also goes to a defense that for the third straight week did not allow a touchdown in the second half. Auburn amassed just 150 yards and three points in the second half after totaling 285 yards and three touchdowns in the first half.

"It was a disappointing first half," admitted Swinney. "But, that was dominant football in the second half. That's three weeks in a row that we have not given up a touchdown in the second half. It has probably been a long time since Auburn has failed to score a touchdown in the second half."

Senior Rennie Moore had a sack on #11 Florida State's final offensive play and #21 Clemson ran out the clock to preserve a thrilling 35-30 victory. It was the highest-ranked team Clemson defeated at home since it beat #3 Florida State in 2003.

With the game hanging in the balance and the Seminoles facing a fourth-and-nine from their own 38, Moore plowed through the line and sacked Clint Trickett, sending the 82,000 fans in Death Valley into a frenzy.

"That was such a huge, huge play," said Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "We didn't come after him, but Rennie just won the matchup. What a big hit to win the game. That's what you dream about."

Clemson improved to 4-0 for the first time since the 2007 season thanks in large part to a big-play offense that racked up 443 total yards against one of the nation's best defenses. Meanwhile, the Tiger defense held the Seminoles to 29 rushing yards and made the necessary stops to win the game when it had to the most.

Sammy Watkins, who was named ACC Receiver-of-the-Week, had another outstanding game with seven catches for 141 receiving yards and two touchdowns.

"Our guys have resiliency and that goes back to your culture and your belief in what you are trying to do," stated Swinney. "It's about believing in each other, not about yourself, but believing in each other. It's the belief that somebody is going to have your back."

"This team has each other's back. They have the coaches' back. They got each other's back."

The Tigers had one another's backs all afternoon. After Florida State took its only lead on a Dustin Hopkins 32-yard field goal on its first drive, the Clemson offense responded with a 24-yard Tajh Boyd to Watkins touchdown and a 7-3 lead on its first series.

After a stop by the defense, the Tigers struck again, this time capping an eight-play, 77-yard drive with a one-yard run by Boyd to take a 14-3 lead.

After Florida State scored a touchdown to cut Clemson's lead to four points, the Tigers again responded, as Boyd found tight end Dwayne Allen open for a 12-yard touchdown and a 21-10 lead with 11:31 remaining in the first half.

"This was a great win against a great opponent," said Offensive Coordinator Chad Morris. "This was a great effort and a team win. It took a great effort both offensively and defensively and in special teams to pull this out."

Clemson stood tall following a fluke touchdown that allowed the Seminoles to pull within four points (21-17) early in the third quarter. Boyd scrambled out of the pocket after avoiding a blitz. He lost his balance and tried to throw the ball away, but the ball came out of his hand. Bjoern Werner snatched it and rumbled 25 yards for a touchdown.

However, Boyd's teammates had his back.

"I really didn't get in that rattled stage, because guys were coming up to me and were asking me if I was 'ok and not to worry about it," said Boyd. "It's one of those things where you have to keep responding."

"That is one of the things I'm growing up with. It's about responding in certain situations. I got a lot of support from the whole team. They told me to come out and make some more big plays, and that's what I did."

Boyd, who finished the afternoon 22-35 for 344 yards and three touchdowns while earning ACC Offensive Back-of-the-Week honors, did make those plays. First, he led the Tigers on an 11-play, 70-yard drive that ended with an Andre Ellington one-yard touchdown. Following another Seminole score, a 30-yard Trickett to Rashad Greene pass, Boyd hit Watkins in stride for a 62-yard touchdown that gave the Tigers a 35-23 lead with 13:06 left in the game.

That touchdown pass followed a key third-down conversion when Boyd hit Allen on a 12-yard strike on third-and-10 from the Clemson 20 to keep the drive alive.

"That was the play of the game," said Swinney.

"We have a lot of playmakers out there, and we have playmakers behind those playmakers," stated Boyd. "It's pretty fun."

And then it was even more fun when the Tiger defense stood tall and made the play to end the game.

"Florida State had to go get a touchdown," said Swinney. "Our motto is, 'We win two-minute on defense.' I felt like we could hold them."

And that is exactly what the Tigers did.

Virginia Tech

October 1, 2011 • Lane Stadium • Blacksburg, VA

The Clemson Tigers sent a message to the ACC and the rest of the college football world in Blacksburg, VA. That message...this is not the same ole' Tigers. Using a stifling defense and getting its customary big play or two from its revamped offense, #13 Clemson stunned #10 Virginia Tech by a score of 23-3 in front of 66,233 fans at Lane Stadium.

"Going into the game, all we heard about was 2006 and 2007, whenever Virginia Tech dismantled the Clemson team," said tight end Dwayne Allen. "We wanted to show that we are not the 2006 team. We are not that 2007 team. We are the 2011 Clemson Tigers."

And what the 2011 Tigers accomplished had never been done in the history of the ACC. Thanks to their 20-point victory over Virginia Tech, the Tigers became the first ACC team to beat three-straight AP-ranked opponents in consecutive games.

"There is no one other than these 115 players and this staff that believed we would be 5-0," stated Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "But you know what?...that's all that matters. The thing I told our team, and they have bought into it, is that if you are going to change Clemson, you have to change it from the inside out."

The Tigers changed Clemson by beating a ranked Virginia Tech team on its field while playing the same style Virginia Tech Head Coach Frank Beamer made famous... playing tough, physical, and simply outmuscling their opponent. The Hokies were held to 258 total yards, including only 133 on the ground.

"Virginia Tech is a smash-mouth team," said defensive end Andre Branch, who tied the Clemson record for sacks (4) and tackles for loss (6) in a game while playing in his home state. "We felt like as a defense that nobody can just line up and run against us. We knew they were going to run the ball, but at the same time it was on us to stop that."

Though the Tigers rushed for only 119 yards, 61 came in the fourth quarter when they took control of the game and ran time off the clock. Clemson used the running game to finish off the Hokies when Mike Bellamy took a handoff and raced 31 yards for the game's final score.

"It's great to come into someone's house and win a game, but to come in here and do what we did tonight makes it even more special," added Allen.

Allen, who had four catches for a game-high 75 yards, added to that special night in the third quarter when, on the Tigers' first drive, he caught a 32-yard touchdown pass from Virginia-native Tajh Boyd, giving Clemson a 17-3 lead at the time. It was a big play in the sense that it sucked all the momentum out of Lane Stadium and put the pressure on a Virginia Tech offense that failed to show any consistency against the Tiger defense.

Clemson finished the game with 20 unanswered points after the Hokies tied the score 3-3 on Cody Jour-

ANDRE BRANCH TIED SCHOOL RECORDS FOR TACKLES FOR LOSS (6) AND SACKS (4) IN CLEMSON'S 23-3 WIN OVER #10 VIRGINIA TECH IN BLACKSBURG.

nell's 24-yard field goal with 4:35 to play in the first half. Along with Branch's record-tying performance, Jonathan Willard added eight tackles and was named ACC Linebacker-of-the-Week.

After that, Boyd led Clemson on a nine-play, 48-yard scoring drive, capped by a one-yard Andre Ellington run. After the defense made a stop on Virginia Tech's first possession of the second half, Allen caught his 32-yard touchdown pass from Boyd.

"Coach (Kevin) Steele always says the sky is the limit for us," remarked Branch, who was named ACC Defensive Lineman-of-the-Week. "Once the offense got Allen's touchdown, we as a defense said, 'We are going to win this game.' We decided then that they are not scoring anymore."

And with that, the message was sent to everyone in the ACC.

Clemson

October 8, 2011 • Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Even though #8 Clemson earned a 36-14 victory over Boston College in front of a Homecoming crowd, the atmosphere around Death Valley appeared as if the Tigers had lost. That came with good reason, because Clemson lost its starting quarterback, at least for most of the second half.

Tajh Boyd, who helped lead the Tigers to their first 6-0 start since the 2000 season, went down with a hip injury on Clemson's first drive of the third quarter. Boyd, who passed for 283 yards, added 37 yards on the ground and was responsible for two touchdowns before leaving with an injury. He was taken to the locker room, where X-rays revealed there was no serious damage. Boyd later went to the hospital for an MRI for confirmation, and it too came back negative.

In came Cole Stoudt under center, who finished the game 6-10 passing for 37 yards.

"He was solid," stated Swinney of Stoudt. "He played very well. The young man is a true-freshman and he had not really played since the first game. He came in when we were deep in the red zone, then his next play was from his own one. I thought he did a heck of a job."

Stoudt led the Tigers, who improved to 3-0 in the ACC for the first time since 2000, on two more scoring drives after Boston College cut the lead to 26-14 on a 24-yard touchdown pass from Chase Rettig to Bobby Swigert with 5:09 left in the third quarter.

"At first I was really shocked, because I didn't know what happened, but I went out there and did what I have been doing in practice," said Stoudt.

Stoudt led a 13-play, 50-yard drive that ended with a 47-yard Chandler Catanzaro field goal that bounced off and over the crossbar with 39 seconds remaining in the third quarter. It was Catanzaro's fifth field goal of the game. The sophomore was named ACC Specialist-of-the-Week for his efforts.

On the scoring drive, Stoudt completed a nine-yard pass on third down to fellow first-year freshman Sammy Watkins and an eight-yard pass to Adam Humphries, another freshman, to set up Catanzaro's field goal. Watkins, who was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Week, had seven catches for a game-high 152 yards.

Stoudt also ran for seven yards on the drive.

"The coaches told me to relax and have fun," added Stoudt.

The rest of the Tigers followed his lead after that. The defense shut down the Eagles from there, limiting them to 258 total yards, while running back Andre Ellington put the game away with a 35-yard touchdown run on fourth-and-one. Ellington's score gave Clemson its 36-14 lead with 11:24 to play in the game.

"We had faith in Cole," said Ellington, who rushed for 117 yards on 22 carries. "We were all a little heartbroken when Tajh went down, but we all rallied behind Cole. We had his back and we were going to go win the game for him...and we did that."

Boyd had already thrown a three-yard touchdown pass to Jaron

JARON BROWN HAULED IN A THREE-YARD TOUCHDOWN CATCH AND THIS CLUTCH 29-YARD RECEPTION OVER THE MIDDLE IN CLEMSON'S WIN OVER BOSTON COLLEGE.

Brown and ran 14 yards for another score in giving the Tigers a 17-0 lead in the first quarter.

"He was on his way to a career day," said Swinney.

Instead, it turned out to be an afternoon when all of the fans in Death Valley were concerned for Boyd's health. Fortunately in the end, everything worked out...Boyd's health and another Tiger victory.

"There was a lull," admitted Swinney. "We definitely had a little bit of staleness there for a spurt, but they responded. We got over them. We challenged them and it was good to see that they responded."

Maryland

October 15, 2011 • Byrd Stadium • College Park, MD

Even though they trailed by 18 points with 11:56 remaining in the third quarter at Maryland, the #8-ranked Clemson Tigers never thought they were going to lose. And when freshman cornerback Bashaud Breeland intercepted a pass by C.J. Brown and returned it 29 yards to the Maryland 15, they believed it even more.

"I thought it was the spark," said Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "That is what I told the team. Breeland's pick was the spark."

Breeland's first career interception set up a 13-yard touchdown pass from Tajh Boyd to Sammy Watkins to pull the Tigers within 11 points, and from that point on, Clemson outscored the Terrapins 39-10 in rallying to a 56-45 win. The comeback, which featured four Tigers scoring touchdowns, was the second-greatest in school history, bested only by the 1992 team's 28-point rally at Virginia.

"Our guys have a ton of heart and character, and I thought that showed up tonight," stated Swinney. "I have talked about the leadership on this football team over and over, and tonight it really showed up bigtime."

It showed up when most thought it was over. However, Clemson never wavered in its approach, even when a muffed punt by Watkins at his own nine and a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown by Cameron Chism gave Maryland an early 14-3 lead.

To that point, the Tigers had allowed just 16 points off turnovers in the first six games.

"We were not playing very well, and that is the bottom line," said offensive tackle Landon Walker.

But Clemson kept fighting, as Andre Ellington scored on a three-yard run and DeAndre Hopkins caught a six-yard touchdown from Boyd to keep Clemson within striking distance at 28-17. The Tigers kept believing, even when Maryland took the opening drive of the third quarter and scored a touchdown thanks to a 22-yard pass from Brown to tight end Matt Furstenburg.

"We put ourselves in a hole early with those turnovers, but the guys came back and persevered," said the Tigers' signal-caller.

Boyd was one of those guys, as he completed 11-12 passes at one point. Overall, he passed for 270 yards and four touchdowns. Boyd finished the night 26-38 with two touchdown passes to Watkins, one to Hopkins, and one to Jaron Brown.

"I came out sluggish," admitted Boyd. "I can't really explain it. You have to dig down internally and find out what you're really made of. I'm glad the guys stuck beside me during the game."

The Tigers also stuck with their running game, as they rushed for 306 yards on 42 carries, with Ellington leading the way with 212 yards and two touchdowns, including a 44-yard touchdown run with 3:55 left to seal the win. Ellington was named ACC Offensive Back-of-the-Week for his efforts.

"Up front, those guys did a good job," said Ellington. "The offensive line took ownership during the week. We got after it this week. Coach (Swinney) said he expected us to have a great rushing game, and we took it and went with it and tried to make the best of it."

Watkins, who was named ACC Receiver-of-the-Week and ACC Rookie-of-the-Week, made the best of his first-quarter fumble and turned in a night to remember. The first-year freshman broke C.J. Spiller's school record for all-purpose yards in a game with 345 while also scoring three touchdowns, including an 89-yard kickoff return for a touchdown that gave Clemson a 49-45 lead after Maryland had reclaimed the lead midway through the fourth quarter.

Watkins also had a 70-yard kickoff return in the first quarter that set up Ellington's first touchdown.

"I'm glad to see the guy is human, because he made a couple of boneheaded mistakes out there," said Swinney. "He made some mistakes tonight where he actually looked like a freshman."

"The guy was clutch. He did not panic. He came back over here. I told

October 22, 2011 • Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

It was only fitting that on the day Clemson honored its 1981 National Championship team in Death Valley, the 2011 Clemson Tigers tied one of its records.

The #8 Tigers tied a school record for points in a quarter with 35 in the third, while they also put on a 1981 workman-like effort by forcing six turnovers in a 59-38 victory over North Carolina.

The 1981 team scored 35 points in the second quarter of its 82-24 victory over Wake Forest on Halloween of that year. The 2011 Tigers also joined the 1981 team as well as the 1948 and 2000 teams as the only squads to start a season with eight straight wins.

"It was really special to do that today," said Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "I got a chance to spend some time with those guys on Friday night. They made a decision 30 years ago and said, 'Why not Clemson? Why not?'"

That's what I say... 'Why not? Why not Clemson? Why can't we be special?'"

The Tigers were special on Saturday in front of 79,000 fans and a national television audience. Clemson amassed 450 yards of offense, with 375 of those coming from quarterback Tajh Boyd, who tied a school-record with five touchdown passes while also tying another record with six touchdowns thanks to a one-yard rushing score.

"We have the potential for this to be a great season, but we are not finished yet," said Boyd.

Clemson came out of the locker room at halftime holding a 24-17 lead, but Boyd, with the help of his defense, took advantage of some Tar Heel mistakes to break the game open.

Boyd, who passed for 367 yards, put the first touchdown of the quarter up with a one-yard sneak to give Clemson a 31-17 lead. Following one of North Carolina's six turnovers, the Tigers scored their second touchdown of the quarter on a 12-yard Boyd-to-Brandon Ford pass just 15 seconds later.

Boyd, who was named ACC Offensive Back-of-the-Week, was aided by the solid blocking of his offensive line, including Landon Walker, who was named ACC Offensive Lineman-of-the-Week.

"The defense gave us some good opportunities to score," stated Boyd. "That shows you what kind of offense this can become when things are completely put together. Our guys made some key plays, and I'm proud of them."

Boyd continued his onslaught on the Tigers' next possession when he threw a 42-yard touchdown pass to Sammy Watkins on third-and-18.

The Tigers scored their fourth touchdown of the third quarter moments later on a nine-yard touchdown pass from Boyd to tight end Dwayne Allen. Less than two minutes later, defensive end Kourtnei Brown picked up a fumble that was caused by Rashard Hall and rumbled 26 yards for the record-tying points and a 59-24 lead with 14 seconds left to play in the third quarter.

Brown, who was named ACC Defensive Lineman-of-the-Week, became the first defensive lineman since 1954 to score two touchdowns in one game. He had a 20-yard interception return in the second quarter that gave Clemson a 24-10 advantage.

Boyd threw touchdown passes of 25 and 29 yards to DeAndre Hopkins and Martavis Bryant in the first half. Hopkins had a game-high nine catches for 157 yards in the contest.

Chandler Catanzaro added a 39-yard field goal to stake Clemson to its seven-point halftime lead.

Then the third quarter started and history repeated itself.

"We are 8-0 and only four teams in Clemson history have been 8-0, and one of those teams was the 1981 team," added Swinney. "That made it special, because one team was in the stands and the other was on the field."

"It was a special day for Clemson all the way around."

October 29, 2011 • Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta, GA

Head Coach Dabo Swinney made no excuses following #6 Clemson's 31-17 loss against Georgia Tech in Atlanta.

"We made too many costly errors tonight," admitted Swinney. "We turned it over four times, had costly penalties, and allowed too many big plays. It's not complicated. Georgia Tech out-executed us in all phases.

"We did not quit, and I'm proud of the team's effort. If we had scored after (Rashard) Hall's interception, we would have been seven points down with 10 minutes to play. We have no excuses...they whipped us."

Clemson's focus after the game was the missed opportunities it had, especially in the second half when it cut the Georgia Tech lead to 14 points at the start of the fourth quarter.

After entering the game with a +9 turnover margin on the season, Clemson lost the turnover battle 4-2, with two of those turnovers coming on promising drives in which the Tigers were in Georgia Tech territory.

"It was a little bit of everything...offense, defense, and special teams," remarked Tajh Boyd. "They outplayed us in all phases of the game. We have to soak it up and try not to let these experiences hinder us and dictate the rest of the season."

Trailing 24-3 at halftime, the Tigers appeared poised for another comeback when Boyd connected with Sammy Watkins for a 48-yard touchdown on the opening possession of the third quarter.

However, Georgia Tech quickly answered when Tevin Washington took a quarterback draw 56 yards on third-and-six, setting up an 11-yard touchdown run by David Sims for a 31-10 lead.

The Yellow Jackets rushed for 383 yards on 67 carries, as Washington led the way with 176 yards.

"We just physically got whipped," stated Defensive Coordinator Kevin Steele. "We got out-executed. From a defensive standpoint, we did not play to our expectations."

Even with that, Clemson narrowed the Yellow Jackets' margin to 14 points again on the first play of the fourth quarter when Brandon Thomas recovered a Boyd fumble in the endzone. That completed a 97-yard drive after Washington fumbled at the Clemson one.

BRANDON THOMAS RECOVERED A TEAMMATE'S FUMBLE IN THE ENDZONE FOR A TOUCHDOWN AGAINST GEORGIA TECH. HE BECAME THE FIRST TIGER OFFENSIVE LINEMAN TO SCORE A TOUCHDOWN SINCE 1966.

The Tigers totaled 226 yards in the third quarter, largely due to Boyd, who completed 9-12 passes for 179 yards.

The Tigers had two more chances to draw closer after the Thomas touchdown, but a promising drive bogged down at the Georgia Tech 47. Later in the fourth quarter, after Hall returned an interception to the Georgia Tech nine, the Tigers committed a costly turnover. Boyd and Watkins, who had a game-high nine receptions for 153 yards, failed to communicate on a fade in the endzone and Jemea Thomas intercepted the pass.

"I thought he was going to the back of the endzone," said Boyd, who finished 23-40 passing for 295 yards. "That is something we might have talked about before, but it was a miscommunication. That was a crucial play. The defense got a turnover and we did not capitalize on it."

Wake Forest

Clemson

November 12, 2011 • Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

There is a sign that is displayed in the Clemson locker room that reads, "Never, ever, ever give up."

The #9 Tigers obeyed that message to their fullest in Death Valley as Chandler Catanzaro booted a 43-yard field goal as time expired to complete one of the best comebacks in Clemson history. It also clinched the ACC Atlantic Division Championship at the same time.

Catanzaro's game-winner lifted Clemson to a 31-28 victory over Wake Forest, who led by 14 points following Brandon Pendergrass' 33-yard touchdown run with 5:32 left in the third quarter. It was the third time this season the Tigers rallied from 14 or more points to earn a win. Clemson had overcome a 14-point deficit to win just nine times in 115 previous seasons.

"I guess you can call us the 'Cardiac Cats,'" said quarterback Tajh Boyd.

The Tigers were definitely that. Thanks to a 50-yard punt return for a score by Mike Campanaro and two turnovers that led to Pendergrass scores, Wake Forest built a 28-14 lead in the third quarter.

"That third quarter was a disaster," admitted Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose team yielded 21 points in the quarter.

"Sometimes, that is how it goes with us," stated Boyd. "We get down and we have to claw our way back. But, we have a lot of guys who battle and we don't ever give up."

Boyd led the comeback by answering Pendergrass' second third-quarter score with a seven-yard touchdown pass to Brandon Ford, who had three receptions for 51 yards. That touchdown capped a 10-play, 68-yard drive that saw Boyd connect on 5-5 passes for 58 yards thanks in large part to the blocking of center Dalton Freeman, who was named ACC Offensive Lineman-of-the-Week.

It was a nice bounce-back for Boyd, whose interception on the previous drive set up Pendergrass' 33-yard score. Boyd finished the game 27-43 passing for 343 yards and two touchdowns, but until that final drive in the third quarter, he had not played as well as he had through the first nine games of the season.

"I was disappointed in myself when that happened," said the Tiger signal-caller. "I know I'm better than that. I made silly mistakes in the game. Rashard Hall and (Jonathan) Meeks came to me and said, 'We got to have you. We need you.'"

"I looked at the clock and there were nine minutes left, and I thought to myself, 'We worked this hard and worked this long for us to come out here and lose this game?' In my mind, I thought, 'This is not going to happen.'"

However, it almost did. After getting the ball back, Clemson moved from the shadow of its own goal line to its own 33, but faced a fourth-and-inches. Swinney elected to go for it, but Boyd was stuffed.

"Our defense went out there and did what it was supposed to do," said Defensive Coordinator Kevin Steele. "They did their job. They made a stop and got the ball back."

Wake Forest's Jimmy Newman then missed wide-left on a 32-yard field-goal attempt with 8:45 remaining in the game, giving Clemson new life.

"After that, I tried to put the ball in our playmakers' hands, and that's all I can ask for," added Boyd. "I'm glad they made plays."

Those plays consisted of a third-down pass to DeAndre Hopkins, then an eight-yard pass to Jaron Brown and a 20-yard pass to Ford, which set the Tigers up at the Wake Forest 12. Two plays later, Boyd connected with Brown for 10 yards over the middle for the equalizing score with 5:27 left in the game.

Clemson did all of this after Sammy Watkins, who became just the fourth Tiger to eclipse 1,000 receiving yards in a season, left the game with a shoulder injury in the third quarter.

"It's next man up," stated Swinney.

With the score tied, it became the defense's turn to step up. After a disappointing third quarter in which it allowed Pendergrass to reach 100 yards in the game after his two touchdown runs, it held the Demon Deacons to only five yards of offense on their last two drives.

"There were a lot of makeups for things that happened today and for last season," said defensive tackle Rennie Moore.

Boyd and the offense set Catanzaro up for what could have been a potential game-winning kick with 1:18 left to play, but his kick sailed wide-right from 30 yards. However, like Boyd and the defense, the Tiger kicker got a second chance to redeem himself, and this time the former walk-on was true.

"We experienced adversity, but we never gave up," said Catanzaro. "It's 60 minutes, or however long it takes. I'm so proud of my team for giving me the opportunity to make the second one. I thank them so much."

CHANDLER CATANZARO'S 43-YARD FIELD GOAL ON THE LAST PLAY OF THE GAME LIFTED CLEMSON TO A 31-28 WIN OVER WAKE FOREST AND THE ACC ATLANTIC DIVISION TITLE.

N.C. State

November 19, 2011 • Carter-Finley Stadium • Raleigh, NC

N.C. State scored 27 points in the second quarter and never looked back in beating #7 Clemson 37-13 at Carter-Finley Stadium in Raleigh, NC on November 19. The win for the Wolfpack ended Clemson's seven-game winning streak in the series, which dated to 2004.

"I was really disappointed in the way we played," admitted Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "There are no excuses. They wanted it more than we did. It is that simple.

"In the game of football, when you do the things that we did, you are going to get beat."

Clemson was led by Tajh Boyd's 238 passing yards and two Chandler Catanzaro field goals of 24 and 32 yards. DeAndre Hopkins added five receptions for a game-high 124 yards for the Tigers, who mustered only 337 total yards in the contest.

The Tigers were without leading receiver Sammy Watkins, who sat out due to a shoulder injury, while starting left offensive tackle Phillip Price also missed the game due to injury.

Mike Bellamy's two-yard touchdown run with 1:22 left to play capped the game's scoring. His score was set up by a 50-yard pass from Cole Stoudt to Brandon Ford on fourth-and-18.

"I told our team that we are a family," said Swinney. "Families hurt together, they celebrate together, and they grow together. That's what families do and that's what this team will do."

Wolfpack quarterback Mike Glennon totaled 253 passing yards and threw three touchdowns to lead N.C. State, who did not commit a turnover.

N.C. State was aided in the second quarter by Tiger mistakes. Clemson turned the ball over four times and was penalized five times for 42 yards.

"When you play like that, most times you are going to get beat, especially when a team grabs the momentum," stated Swinney. "That's what happened. They got the momentum and we never got it back."

Following the Wolfpack's first touchdown, a Boyd fumble and Wolfpack return to the Clemson six set up a seven-yard touchdown pass from Glennon to Jay Smith to give N.C. State a 14-3 lead with 10:33 left in the second quarter. On the next possession, Bellamy fumbled at his own 18, which led to a 21-yard field goal by Niklas Sade.

After the Wolfpack forced a three-and-out, T.J. Graham returned a punt 34 yards to the Clemson 11. Two plays later, Tony Creecy scampered four yards off the right side to give the Wolfpack a 24-3 lead with 4:58 remaining in the second quarter.

"Field position was huge," added Swinney. "They had three straight scores that were at the six, the 11, and the 18. That was back-to-back-to-back. We could never get the momentum back our way."

The Wolfpack added a 32-yard Sade field goal with five seconds left before halftime to stretch the lead to 27-3. Clemson, which led the ACC in scoring and total offense entering the contest, was held to 86 yards in the first half.

"We did not get it done today," said Boyd. "Give N.C. State credit. They came out with more energy and were fired up. That summed the game up."

N.C. State opened up the second half with a third Sade field goal. On its next drive, Glennon connected with Tobais Palmer for a 43-yard touchdown. Palmer broke several tackles after hauling in the screen pass to give the Wolfpack a 31-point point lead.

Clemson had scored first on a 21-yard field goal from Catanzaro in the first quarter. However, N.C. State reeled off 30 consecutive points before Catanzaro's second field goal, this time from 32 yards, ended the streak in the third quarter.

The Tigers had several chances to draw closer in the third quarter, but Boyd had one pass intercepted at the one by David Amerson and another in the endzone by Brandan Bishop.

"We have had 11 turnovers in our last three games," said Swinney. "This is not a complicated game. I'm really disappointed in that. We had some costly penalties and we gave up some sacks. We really looked like an immature team out there."

South Carolina

November 26, 2011 • Williams-Brice Stadium • Columbia, SC

Andre Ellington rushed for 66 yards and Tajh Boyd completed a nine-yard touchdown pass to Dwayne Allen, but it was not enough, as #13 South Carolina topped #17 Clemson 34-13 at Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia.

"You have the highest of the highs and the lowest of the lows...that's just the nature of this profession," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "We did not play well. It was really disappointing. We dropped touchdowns passes and we allowed too many sacks. Obviously, that affects your ability to score.

The Gamecocks, who reached the 10-win mark for just the second time in school history, were led by quarterback Connor Shaw. The sophomore rushed for 107 yards and threw three touchdown passes, as South Carolina defeated the Tigers for the third time in a row.

Shaw threw touchdown passes of 49, two, and 18 yards to Bruce Ellington, Rory Anderson, and Alshon Jeffery, respectively. He also finished the game 14-20 passing for 210 yards and no interceptions.

"He was the difference in the game...there was no doubt," added Swinney. "The most disappointing thing to me coming out of this game is that we let the quarterback beat us. We knew exactly what they were going to do, but we could not stop it."

Trailing 10-0 in the second quarter, the Tigers charged back when Boyd capped a 61-yard drive with his nine-yard touchdown pass to Allen with 11:32 left before halftime.

Clemson then tied the score after South Carolina failed to pick up a first down on its next possession. Gamecock punter Joey Scribner-Howard dropped the snap and Drew Traylor blocked the punt. Several plays later, Chandler Catanzaro kicked a 32-yard field goal to tie the score (10-10).

Shaw answered the Clemson rally with a nine-play, 60-yard drive that took 4:19 off the clock. He capped it with a 15-yard touchdown run to give the Gamecocks a 17-10 lead with 1:55 remaining in the second quarter.

The Gamecocks started the second half like the first. They shut down the Clemson offense on its first possession, then Shaw led a five-play, 66-yard drive, capped by a two-yard touchdown pass to Anderson. That gave South Carolina a 24-10 lead with 9:52 left in the third quarter.

Catanzaro added a 40-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter, but the Gamecocks kicked another field goal and Shaw threw his third touchdown pass of the game following a Clemson turnover to put the game away.

South Carolina sacked Boyd five times and held the Tigers to 153 yards. Boyd finished the night with only 83 yards on 11-29 passing.

"That is where I have to become wiser and more composed," explained Boyd. "I need to be more confident in my guys and not immediately run out of the pocket. We need to work harder and get better."

The Gamecocks finished with 420 total yards, including 210 yards on 53 carries.

"It can get better next week," said Swinney about stopping opposing team's running games. "It has got to get better.

"At times, we did some good things. In the second half, I thought we did a better job. We had a really, really poor first quarter defensively. We did a better job in the second half."

December 3, 2011 • ACC Championship Game • Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, NC

Two weeks of frustration were cured in just over one quarter at Bank of America Stadium as #21 Clemson scored 28 points in the first 17 minutes of the second half to defeat #3 Virginia Tech by a score of 38-10 to win its first ACC Championship since 1991.

"We're a championship program and tonight we added to a great tradition," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "I think this was our 18th (conference title) overall and 14th ACC Championship.

"It's our first time to win 10 games in 21 years. It's our first time to win an ACC Championship in 20 years and our first time to go to the Orange Bowl in 30 years. It's great to be a Tiger and we're 10-3. We're excited about representing the ACC in the Orange Bowl."

With the game tied 10-10 at halftime, Clemson forced the Hokies to a three-and-out on their first possession of the third quarter and then used a 10-play, 87-yard drive to regain the lead for good. Tajh Boyd, who was named game MVP, threw his second of three touchdown passes with an eight-yard pass to tight end Dwayne Allen to cap the drive.

Allen and Boyd hooked up for a 24-yard touchdown in the first quarter as well. Boyd finished the game 20-29 passing for 240 yards and three touchdowns against no interceptions. In the process, he set Clemson season-single records for total yards and passing yards.

It was a nice comeback for Boyd, who had struggled in the previous two games.

"Somewhere you've got to dig deep inside yourself and work through things," admitted Boyd. "I feel like that's one of the things that happened, and it happened for a reason, to let you know that all you can really do is believe in yourself and your family, which is my teammates. I'm just proud to be here."

Boyd was even more proud on the Tigers' next possession, as he hit Sammy Watkins in stride for a 53-yard touchdown pass that gave Clemson a 24-10 lead.

After another three-and-out forced by the Tiger defense, which held ACC Player-of-the-Year David Wilson to only 32 yards on 11 carries, the Tigers scored again, this time on a 29-yard touchdown run by Andre Ellington. The running back finished with 125 yards on 20 carries.

LANDON WALKER AND THE REST OF THE TIGER OFFENSIVE LINEMEN LED THE TIGERS TO 28 SECOND-HALF POINTS IN CLEMSON'S 38-10 WIN OVER #3 VIRGINIA TECH IN THE ACC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME. WALKER ALSO SET A SCHOOL RECORD WITH HIS 48TH CAREER START IN THE GAME.

Clemson finished the game with 217 rushing yards, while the Hokies were limited to 56 yards on the ground.

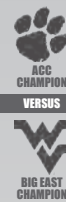

"I'm proud of Andre Ellington," stated Swinney. "He was big-time player tonight on a big stage. He was one of the big keys in the game for us, because we were able to run the football."

Boyd added his fourth touchdown of the night to cap the night's scoring with a one-yard plunge with 13:04 left in the game. From that point on, the celebration was on.

"Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to announce that I will be taking my Clemson talents to South Beach, baby," laughed Swinney in the press conference after the game. "I have wanted to say that. We're excited. It's a great time. We are excited about going to Miami.

"We played like a champion."

1951 ORANGE BOWL

Clemson

Miami (FL)

January 1, 1951 • Orange Bowl • Miami, FL

Clemson's bid for a repeat of the 1948 perfect season ended when the Tigers had to rely on the toe of Charlie Radcliff to tie South Carolina after three season-opening shutouts. Clemson regrouped, however, with a 13-12 win at Wake Forest and then won the remaining four games by convincing margins. The Tigers' 8-0-1 mark and second-place finish in the Southern Conference earned them a bid to play Miami (FL), who was also undefeated at 9-0-1, in the 17th Orange Bowl.

After a scoreless first quarter, Clemson got on track with a 45-yard pass from Billy Hair to Bob Hudson that put the Tigers at the Miami one. Fred Cone capped the 76-yard drive with a sweep for the score and Radcliff tacked on the extra point.

Clemson mounted a six-play, 70-yard drive in the third quarter for its second touchdown. Hair threw a 31-yard pass to Ray Mathews, who, as the papers said, "made a circus catch with two men on his back," to move the Tigers to the Miami 28. Hair tossed a pass to Glenn Smith at the Miami seven and Smith scrambled in for the score.

Miami caught fire two minutes later when Jack Delbello intercepted a pass in the Clemson endzone and returned it to the 40, and then a 10-yard penalty was assessed on the Tigers for unnecessary roughness. On the next play, Frank Smith ran a reverse for 45 yards to move to the Clemson five. Harry Mallios took a pitch from quarterback Bob Schneidenbach in for the score and Gordon Watson added the conversion.

Miami drove 95 yards in just five plays for its second score of the game. Ed Lutes caught a pass at midfield and rambled down to the Clemson 17 before he was stopped.

On fourth down, Jack Hackett threw to Frank Smith for the score and Watson's point put Miami in the lead for the first time, 14-13.

Mallios' 80-yard punt return was called back and two clipping infractions along with one unnecessary roughness penalty put Miami in a deep hole with six minutes left in the game. Frank Smith took a pitch-out from Hackett, but before Smith could get out of the end zone, Sterling Smith, a second-team defensive guard for Clemson, tripped him up for a safety, and Clemson led 15-14. Don Wade ended the last Miami threat with an interception, his second of the game, and Clemson ran out the clock.

CLEMSON PLAYED IN ITS FIRST ORANGE BOWL AFTER THE 1950 SEASON AND DEFEATED HOMETOWN-FAVORITE MIAMI (FL) 15-14 ON A LATE SAFETY.

1957 ORANGE BOWL

Clemson

January 1, 1957 • Orange Bowl • Miami, FL

Clemson claimed its first Atlantic Coast Conference championship in 1956 on the strength of a 4-0-1 league mark. The Tigers were 7-1-2 overall and were a surprise choice to participate in the 22nd Orange Bowl, as only three weeks before their selection, the Tigers had been shut out by Miami, 21-0, in the same stadium. Colorado, which was 7-2-1 and the Big-Seven runnerup, was chosen as Clemson's opponent.

After a scoreless first quarter, Colorado got on track with a seven-play, 75-yard drive. The Buffaloes' catalyst was a 26-yard run by Bob Stransky that moved the ball to the Clemson 23. Four plays later, John "The Beast" Bayuk scored from the two. Ellwin Indorf added the point after.

Clemson came out of the lockerroom and marched 69 yards in 15 plays to score on Joel Wells's three-yard run. After a punt, Clemson moved to the 29 on Bob Spooner's two runs. Three plays later, Wells ran 58 yards on a counter trap off the belly series for the Tigers' second score. Bussey's point after made the score 20-14 Colorado.

Clemson recovered the onside kick, but the Tigers were forced to punt. Colorado then fumbled at its 11 and Tommy Sease recovered. Spooner, who had been the workhorse on the first scoring drive, carried the ball in from the one, and with Bussey's third extra point, Clemson led for the first time at 21-20.

Although leading, Bussey attempted a second onside kick. Colorado recovered and marched 53 yards in eight plays to go ahead for good on Bayuk's one-yard plunge.

Indorf kicked the extra point and the Buffaloes led 27-21. The two teams traded turnovers, and Colorado ran out the clock.

Frank Howard's threatened resignation during halftime inspired the comeback in the second half. "I told them I was going to resign if they didn't play better in the second half. I told them I didn't want to be associated with any team that played like that."

When Howard met Colorado Head Coach Dal Ward at midfield, Ward asked him what was the matter with his team. Howard said, "I just don't know."

Later, Howard explained that his team refused to block in the first half, but in the second half, they got down to business. He had words of praise for fullback John Bayuk and said he was as good as any fullback Clemson had faced.

1982 ORANGE BOWL

January 1, 1982 • Orange Bowl • Miami, FL

After 86 years of playing football, Clemson claimed its first National Championship with a 22-15 win over perennial Big Eight power Nebraska in the 48th Orange Bowl. After a 13-3 win over 1980 National Champion Georgia at home, the Tigers worked their way to the number-one ranking in both wire service polls by season's end. The win over the Cornhuskers gave Clemson the national title and its third perfect season in history.

Nebraska took the kickoff, but three plays later, Tiger middle guard William Devane recovered a Mark Mauer fumble at the Nebraska 33. Quarterback Homer Jordan drove Clemson to the Nebraska 24 before the drive stalled, and Donald Igwebiuke drilled a 41-yard field goal to put the ACC Champions up, 3-0.

Nebraska came right back, however, as the Big Eight title holder drove 69 yards in eight plays to score on a 25-yard halfback pass from Mike Rozier to Anthony Steels. Kevin Seibel's extra point gave Nebraska the lead at 7-3 with 6:43 to go in the first quarter.

After an exchange of punts, the Clemson offense moved from the Nebraska 42 yard line to the 21 to set up Igwebiuke's second field goal. The 37-yard boot narrowed the score to 7-6.

A second-quarter Phil Bates fumble gave Clemson the ball at the Nebraska 27, and the running combination of Jordan, Kevin Mack, and Cliff Austin moved the ball to the Cornhusker two. Austin, who had been stuck in the hotel elevator for two hours earlier in the day, scampered in for the score that gave Clemson a lead it would not relinquish.

On its second possession of the second half, Clemson drove 75 yards in 12 plays to score its final touchdown of the night, a 13-yard pass from Jordan to All-American receiver Perry Tuttle in the corner of the end zone. It was Tuttle's eighth touchdown grab of the season, which set a school record. Bob Paulling's extra point put the Tigers ahead, 19-7.

After Billy Davis's 47-yard punt return, Jordan moved the Tigers to the Nebraska 20, where Igwebiuke kicked a 36-yard field goal, his third of the evening, to put Clemson ahead 22-7 with two-and-a-half minutes left in the third stanza.

Nebraska was down but not out, though. After a near-interception by Johnny Rember, Mauer engineered an eight-play, 69-yard drive that was capped by a 26-yard run by Roger Craig. After a penalty, Craig ran in the two-point conversion from eight yards out to close the gap to 22-15 with nine minutes to play.

The Clemson defense shut down the Big Red on their final extended drive, then the offense held on to the ball for nearly five-and-a-half minutes to run down the clock to six seconds. Andy Headen deflected Mauer's desperation pass to preserve the win and the championship for Clemson.

1989 GATOR BOWL

Clemson

West Virginia

December 30, 1989 • Gator Bowl • Jacksonville, FL

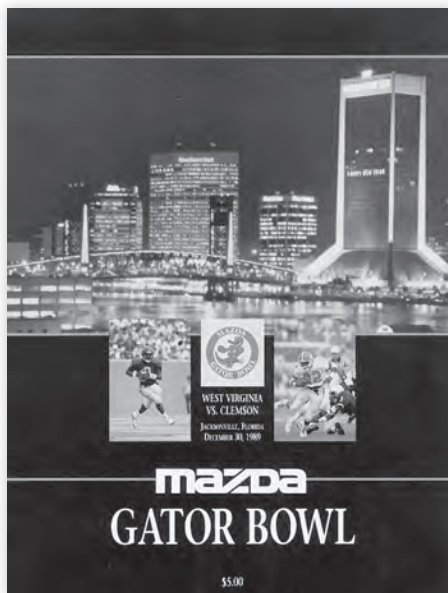

The Tigers closed out the 1989 season with a stylish victory over West Virginia and Heisman Trophy finalist Major Harris, as a dominant Clemson defense held the high-powered Mountaineer offense to only 237 yards in total offense.

The win gave Clemson's senior class the ACC record for victories as they became the first class in conference history to record 38 wins and the first Clemson team ever to win four straight bowl games.

West Virginia quarterback Major Harris came into the game ranked eighth nationally in total offense and ninth in passing efficiency but the Clemson defense, led by outside linebacker Levon Kirkland, enabled the shifty Harris to gain only 17 yards on the ground and 119 yards in the air on an 11-21 passing effort. Kirkland was named MVP for his efforts, as he had nine tackles, a five-yard sack, caused a key fumble, broke up a Mountaineer pass, and recorded three quarterback pressures.

The fourth quarter was all Clemson, as the Tigers moved the ball 47 yards on the ground to set up a four-yard Joe Henderson touchdown. Vince Taylor recovered a second Harris fumble and after a Clemson punt, freshman defensive tackle Chester McGlockton, the ACC sack leader, knocked the ball loose from Harris once again and fell on it in the endzone for a Tiger touchdown, upping the score to 24-7 in favor of Clemson.

As the final seconds ticked off the clock, DeChane Cameron entered the game at quarterback for the Tigers and hit Rodney Fletcher over the middle for a 34-yard gain to set up a 24-yard Chris Gardocki field goal, putting the final score 27-7.

Senior tailback Joe Henderson led the Tigers in rushing with 92 yards on 22 carries and one touchdown, while Chris Morocco, who was shaken up late in the game, gained 65 yards on the ground on 11 carries. Rodney Fletcher was the leading receiver as he pulled down three catches for 66 yards.

Chris Gardocki kept the Tigers in good field position, as he had a 46-yard average on four punts, including a long kick of 63.

Defensively, linebacker Doug Brewster led the team in tackles with 10, followed by Kirkland's nine and strong safety Arlington Nunn and inside linebacker Ed McDaniel, who had seven stops each.

THE LATE CHESTER MCGLOCKTON SACKED MAJOR HARRIS, CAUSED A FUMBLE, AND RECOVERED THE BALL IN THE ENDZONE FOR A TOUCHDOWN IN THE FOURTH QUARTER TO SEAL CLEMSON'S 27-7 WIN OVER WEST VIRGINIA IN THE 1989 GATOR BOWL. THE LAST MEETING BETWEEN THE TWO TEAMS.
